

From London the party will go to Windsor Castle, Oxford, the city of colleges, Stratford-on-Avon, Warwick Castle, Kenilworth Castle, Holyhead, Dublin, Belfast, Giant's Causeway, thence to Londonderry, where the Royal Mail Steamer will be boarded for Montreal.

The fares quoted include 1st or 2nd cabin across the Atlantic, 3rd class rail in England, and 2nd class rail in Ireland and the Continent, 1st class on all Channel steamers and the steamer on the Rhine.

By special arrangements, any one desiring to go only to London and return can do so on payment of $115 for first-class on ocean steamer and $69 or $79 for those going from Boston, for second cabin accommodation.

To secure accommodation with this party application must be made to A. F. Webster, corner King and Yonge Streets, Toronto, Ontario, and forwarding with the application a deposit fee of $10, the balance to be paid on or before the 15th day of May.

Book Notices.

Dr. Charles E. Jakeway, author of the famous ballad "Laura Secord," and other poems of a patriotic and lofty character, has a volume of his verse in the press of William Briggs, 29-33 Richmond Street west, Toronto. The book is entitled "The Lion and the Lillies; a Tale of the Conquest, and other Poems," and will be sold for $1.00, postpaid. Dr. Jakeway's remarkable powers as a poet have been recognized for many years in Canada and in England, and the volume is sure of a warm welcome. The author's only son, Mr. H. W. Jakeway, whose writings appear in Saturday Night and elsewhere, is a member of Court Sunnidale, Stayner.
