

Knew Them.

It is related of a certain divine, whose matrimonial relations are supposed not to have been of the most agreeable kind, that one Sabbath morning, while reading to his congregation the parable of the Supper, in which occurs the passage: "And another said, I have bought a yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused. And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come"—he suddenly paused at the end of the verse, drew off his spectacles, and, looking on his hearers, said with emphasis:

"The fact is, my brethren, that one woman can draw a man further away from the kingdom of heaven than fifty yoke of oxen."

In To-day already walks To-morrow.—SCHILLER.

We may be the creatures of yesterday, but we are the creators of to-morrow.—T. F. SEWARD.

Fame comes only when deserved, and then is as inevitable as destiny, for it is destiny.—LONGFELLOW.

Every man takes good care that his neighbor shall not cheat him. After a time he begins to be concerned lest he cheat his neighbor. Then all goes well. His market-cart becomes a chariot of the sun.—EMERSON.

We never truly pray for anything that we are not willing to die for.

God pays no attention to the prayer of the man who locks up all his money before he gets down on his knees.

Everybody is willing to give up some sin, but only the believer in Christ wants to give up all sin.—Ram's Horn.

Vacation Time

Is at hand and is gladly welcomed by all, especially those whose duties in life have caused them to greatly run down their system to meet the requirements, physical and mental, forced upon them. With these and others, it is important, whether at home, at the seashore or in the country, that some thought be given to diet, and as further assistance to Nature, a good building-up medicine like Hood's Sarsaparilla had best be resorted to. If the digestion is poor, liver deranged and frequent headaches seem to be the rule, Hood's will change all this and enable everyone to return to their home and business in a refreshed state of mind and bodily health.
