The Bishop's Labrador Visitation.

We related in our last issue how the Bishop had successfully accomplished the first part of his Visitation of the Labrador Coast as far as Natashquan. And now we are able from further letters received to continue our narrative.

Leaving Natashquan, they steamed eastward down the coast, and came on Wednesday, June 22nd, to Casco, where the Bishop in the evening held a Confirmation. Then they passed on to Romain, and thence, on Thursday, to Coacocho. Here the Bishop was taken out in a small boat six miles to Wolf Bay for another Confirmation, there being one Candidate at each place. On Friday, June 24th, the "Canadienne" reached Wapitagun, and on Saturday, after touching at Yankee Harbour and Eastern Harbour, they anchored at Harrington.

The events of the next day, Sunday, June 26th, will long be remembered by the people of these parts. The beautiful new Church was consecrated, eight Candidates received the Laying on of Hands, and there was an Evening Service with
