MISCELLANEOUS.

We may envy the man who rests and enjoys; but the smile of Heaven broods rather on the front of him who labours and aspires.

Some people have made up their minds to divide all mankind into knaves and fools, and when they meet with an honest man they don't know what to make of him.

Hot weather proves depressing to those whose blood is poor. Such people should enrich their blood with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Japan promises well in the way of linguistic attainments. In the higher schools, and particularly in commercial schools, the study of English is now on the same footing as Japanese itself; that is to say, it is compulsory.

RHEUMATISM CURED IN A DAY—South American Rheumatic Cure, for Rheumatism and Neuralgia, radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause, and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits. 75 cents. Sold by all Druggists.

The Jewish residents of the slum district of Boston have been holding an indignation meeting against the Christian missions of the neighborhood. They protest that their children are rapidly being won to Christianity, and that, while the mission workers have been unable to reach the older people—of this they boast—yet by means of their schools, gymnasiums, reading-rooms, boys' clubs, etc., they are able to win many of the little ones to the gospel of the Nazarene. The number of these converts, they declare in dismay, is rapidly on the increase.—The Golden Rule, Boston.

St. Bartholomew the Great is the oldest Church in London. There is a curious legend concerning its foundation. When Rabero, the king's minstrel, was journeying to Rome in 1120 in expiation of his sins, he dreamed that he was carried by a great monster to the brink of the bottomless pit. St. Bartholomew came and rescued him, and commanded him to build a Church. On his return home Rabero carried out the command, and St. Bartholomew the Great is the result. The Church was completed in 1133. Among the old registers in the vestry is an entry of the baptism of Hogarth, the painter.

"But evil is wrought by want of thought, As well as want of heart."

By want of thought mothers allow daughters to become frail and puny. Over-study in girls induces uterine disorders and weaknesses, and blights their future happiness as wives and mothers. Joined to proper hygienic care, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a priceless remedy in such ailments, its value becoming even more apparent every year. Using it, the wau, debilitated school girl gains color, flesh and spirits, losing those deathly headaches, tormenting backaches, languor, dejection, and other symptoms of functional irregularities, and nervous debility. It never harms the most delicate girl.

 WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION:

Gentlemen,—I cannot sufficiently express to you my gratitude for the benefit your medicine has conferred upon my daughter. Of late she has suffered no pain whatever. It is simply marvellous. You have just reason to call it your "Favorite Prescription," and to stake your reputation as a physician on it. A favorite prescription it is, indeed, to you and to thousands in this land, and I believe will be to suffering women the world over.
 Yours gratefully,
THOMAS THIRLWELL.
