TO OUR READERS.

Our fourth number of the Instructor and Register under the new arrangement is now before the public, and our readers are new able to judge of our success in accomplish: ing the ends contemplated in our Prospectus. So many new arrangements having been found necessary, both in the editing and publishing department, by the changes in the place of publication and the character of the periodical, our first No.'s were not quite what we desire. We trust, however, that any deficiencies of this kind will be supplied for the future, and that material improvements will yet be introduced. Still the amount and character of our original and selected matter has been such that we appeal with some confidence to the members of our Church for their counten-We are happy to say, that at least in some parts of the Church we have received a very cordial support. In some congregations the orders for the Instructor have been very respectable, while in others they have been very small, in some ir stances a single copy for the minister being all that has been called for. We think that if a little exertion were made by our friends in such places as those last mentioned that a number might be taken, and that in other places where but few copics are taken that our list might be considerably increased. At present the number taken will not pay the expense of publication, and it will thus be a question whether it should be continued after the present year. By a little effort we think that sufficient subscriptions might be obtained to put the publication on a paying foundation, and thus avert the possible stoppage of it, which we believe . would be highly injurious to the interests of religion in our Ghurch.
