

that their lot is cast in a land of gospel light, and they should strive to walk in the light. Do they now love darkness rather than light? We trust not.

WE ALL MIGHT DO GOOD.

We all might do good,
When we often do ill;
There is always the way,
If we have but the will;
Though it be but a word
Kindly breathed or suppress'd,
It may guard off some pain,
Or give peace to some breast.

We all might do good,
In a thousand small ways—
In forbearing to flatter,
Yet yielding due praise;
In spurning ill-humour,
Reproving wrong done,
And treating but kindly
Each heart we have won.

We all might do good,
Whether lowly or great,
For the deed is not gauged
By the purse or estate,
If it be but a cup
Of cold water that's given,
Like the widow's two mites,
It is something for heaven.

CHOOSE YE THIS DAY.

Question.—Is it not best, then, for me to serve God?

Answer.—Yes; for they that serve the devil must be where he is, and they that serve God and Christ must be where they are, John xvi. 16; Matt. xxv. 41.

Q.—But when had I best begin to serve God?

A.—Just now: remember now thy Creator, now thou hast the gospel before thee, now thy heart is tender and will be soonest broken.
