THE GUARDIAN.

THE GUARDIAN, published in Halifax, Nova Scotia, is devoted to the interests of the Church of Scotland, and contains, in addition to the intelligence concerning the Church, a great variety of interesting religious articles, selected from the religious periodicals of the day.

The Guardian is published for the proprietors, every Wednesday, by James Spike, opposite St. Paul's and St. Andrew's Churches, at 15s. per annum, when paid in advance, and 17s. 6d. on credit, exclusive of postage.

The Guardian contains 8 large 4to. pages, each page containing 4 columns. It may be seen at the office of the CHRISTIAN MIRROR.

PROSPECTUS OF A NEW SERIES OF THE CHRISTIAN MIRROR:

TO BE PUBLISHED WEEKLY,

As soon as a sufficient number of additional Subscribers can be obtained;

AT 7s. 6d. PER ANNUM.

IN proportion as the influence of the Religion of Christ prevails—just in the same ratio will enlightened and liberal views prevail.—Men will forget the minor shades of difference in their theological notions, and, with common consent, rally round those great truths, and fundamental principles, which all Evangelical Churches believe to be essential to salvation, We are fully satisfied, that every disciple of Christ, to whatever section of the Christian Church he may belong, has quite enough to do in combatting with his enemies, "the world, the flesh, and the devil," without disputing, or in any wise interfering, with his fellow pilgrims on their way to the promised rest.

Believing these views to be scripturally correct, and with an ardent desire to be made instrumental, in some small degree, in promoting love and harmony between Christians of different names,—the conductor of the Christian Mirror commenced its publication—under a conviction, that such a religious periodical was a desideratum in Canada: a publication in which the most fastidious Christian should find nothing to interfere, in the most remote manner, with his peculiar predications, but much that might contribute to his edification and instruction. The fact that the Mirror is now patronized by nearly all denominations of Christians in this Province, is to the publisher a gratifying proof that he was not mistaken. The Christian Mirror has been published for upwards of two years; and it is pleasing to be able to say, that it now enjoys so large a share of patronage, as to induce the Proprietor, at the earnest solicitation of a large number of the subscribers and friends, to issue the present Prospectus—intending, should a sufficient number of names be obtained, to publish it WEEKLY, at the close of the present quarter, (say November next.)

For the information of such as may not be acquainted with the character of the Mirror, it has been thought proper to publish the following synopsis:—

Conceiving that Missionary efforts are among the most important and interesting movements of modern Christianity, a large space is devoted to the advocacy of Christian Missions, and the publication of the latest Missionary Intelligence. It may here be remarked, that an additional supply of Missionary and other religious Periodicals is about to be ordered.

A portion of the paper is also devoted to the interests of the great Temperance Cause—which has been so signally blessed to thousands of our fellow-men.

In its management, the discussion of all party politics is most sedulously avoided; while in its pages will always be found a summary of the latest secular News, state of the Markets, &c.

The Mirror also comprises:—

Extracts from Modern Travels, especially those which tend to throw light on Biblical History, and Biblical Records.

Religious Literature, being extracts from the most popular writers on Divinity, that is, such as interfere not with the neutral principles of the paper.

Moral Tales, Anecdotes, and Short Articles for Youth.

In consequence of the increasing circulation of the Mirror, it is strongly recommended to the commercial community as a good advertising medium.

Agents and friends generally are respectfully requested to procure new subscribers, to meet the additional outlay consequent upon a weekly issue.

Subscriptions thankfully received by the undersigned publisher.
