HOW WOUED IT DOT
This bad weather requires a re medy. It seems as if the whole re gponsibility should rest on Vonnor and Wigging, for we had some kind of weather before they appeared upon the scene. How would it do to string thém up? Would it makie things better? Anotiot hint of importance-don't káng on to your coras as weather indicators. Better string them out root and brainch. Putnam's Paínless Cobn Exitiacton will do it quichly, painlessy, and with certainty, Don't buy dan* gerous flesh-aating gubsitatases. FG̣tet Patnam's, and no notifor F?
It is better to' think wrong and aet upon that wrong thinking, than it is to think right and not do as that thinking requires of us.

For Cholrra, Cholera Morbus, and Cholera Infantum, as well as all Summer Complaints of a similar nature, Perry Davis' Pain-Killer, acts with wonderful rapidity, and Never Fails when taken at the commencement of an attack, and often cures after every other remedy has failed.

The only rewaid of virtue is virtue. The only way to have a friend is to be one.-Emerson.

A Missionary just returned sayg ho regards Johnson's Anodyne Liniment as beyond all price, and efficacious beyond any other medicine. It is adapted to a great variety of special cases, and is the best pain killer in the world.

As celery is to nervousness, so are cranberries to dyspepsia. Figure it out yourself.

Soott's Emolsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites.-
Very Palatable and Effcacious in Wasting diseases.-Dr. C. I. Bromser, Rochester, N.Y., says: "After having used Scott's Emulsión with decided benefit'upon myedlf, I have taken great pleasure in recommend:ing it since in the various conditions of wasting in whicli it is indicated."

Always hang up your broom and you will not require to buy so many.
The most dangerous fevers are typhoid, bilious, malarious and gastric. These all originate in the stomach, liver or bowels, and may be easily pravented.' One of Par son's Purgative: Pills each nighti for a week will drive disease from the system.

Whapt sportine Men Rely on.
When Lewitric Rodmond, the South Carolina moonshiner, cornered, after for aight years oluding the government officials, was asked to surrender, he exclaimed: "never, to men who fire at:my back!"
"Pbeore hé was taken; fie ballete had gone clear throngh him, but Atriage to relate, hogot teell, in the hands of a rade báakt wobds nurse."
By the way, if Gaifield had been in the hands of a backwoods nurse, ho might have lived, A heap of voluñteer testimöny against the infallibility of the physicicians has been accumulating of latesaid people aire oncouraged to do ther opmactoct ing nore and nore. It is oheaper and quite as ceitain.
Before Detective Cartin, of Butfo alo, caught Toim' Ballai'd he "cov ered" him with his revolver. Tom saw the point and tumbled!
Joe "Goss" was "covered" a few weoks ago and he tumbled, and so did Dan Mace, Deqth " fetched em "wíth that dreatēd wéaponkidney disease. But they should have "been" lively and drawn first: They could easily have disarmed thie monister bad they covered him with that dead shot-Warner's safe cure, which, drawn promptly, always takes the prey. It is doubt less true that sporting men dread this enemy more than any mishap of their' profession, and presumably this explains why they as a rule are so partial to that celebrated "dead shot."
Redmond was right. No man should surrender when attacked in the back. Hoshouft "draw", face aboutiand proceed to the defince for sath attacks, so commonsamong all ctasbes," will fetch a man oyery time unless "covered" by that twondeiffully" successful "dead shot."Sportisman's's. Newos'.
