

NEWS AND NOTES.

A GHOST

is a myth, but solid reality will be known by those who write to Hallett & Co., Portland, Maine, thereby learning, free about work that they can do, and live at home, wherever they reside, at a profit of from $5 to $25 and upwards daily.

An Indian chief who was visiting at Washington at government expense was introduced to a senator recently, who has a very bald head. The chief looked at him some moments with great interest. Finally he said: 'Ugh! Where you fight Injun some time?'

THE VICTOR'S CROWN

should adorn the brow of the inventor of the great corn cure, Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. It works quickly, never makes a sore spot, and is just the thing you want.

A wise man ought to hope for the best, be prepared for the worst, and bear with equanimity whatever happens.

The retention of any waste matter in the system produced injury. The collection of "phlegm" or diseased mucus in time of cold or throat affection should be promptly removed.

An ocean steamship is said to have used twenty thousand dollars' worth of coal on a recent voyage.

House Cleaning is Easily, Quickly and well done by using Pyle's Pearline; absolutely harmless to hands or fabric. Beware of imitations.

Tonka beans are said to keep out the moths, and anyone in possession of the camel's-hair shawls, or such treasures, would prefer this remedy to the usual camphor, that leaves so disagreeable an odor in the garments.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. WINSLOW'S Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. 25c a bottle.

A platter has a metal spike or skewer set upright in the bottom of the dish. Upon this the roast is laid, and pressed down until firmly fastened, in which position it is thought to be more convenient to carve.

The death is announced, in her thatched cottage, near Ayr, of Isabella Burns, the niece of the poet and his last near relative. She had just completed her 80th year.
