THE PREACHER'S TRIAL

AN INTERESTING CHAT WITH THE REV. W. J. CHAPIN.

In the Strain of Pulpit Labor he had Overdrawn his Health Account-How he met the Crisis and Returned to his Duties with Renewed Health.

Frem the Springfield, Illinois. Journal.

In the pretty village of Chatham, Ill, there lives a Baptist divine whose snow white hair is the one outward sirn that he has encroached upon the days beyond the allotted three score years and ten. His clear eye, keen mental facul ies and marniticent physique all bear witness to a life well spent. This pioneer in God's eternal vineyard is Rev. W. J. Chapin whose 72 years are crowded with noble deeds in the Christian ministry.

To a Journal representative who asked him something of his career in the ministry. Mr. Chapin talked in an interesting strain, and said that, in spite of the indications to the contrary, his life had not all been sunshine and good health.

strain, and said that, in spite of the indications to the contrary, his life had not all been sunshine and good health.

"As my present appearance testifies, I was fortunate in the jossession of a very vigorous constitution. But as is too often the case, I overestimated my physical resources, and when it was too late learned that I had overdrawn my health account. The crisis came about eighteen years ago. At the time I was preaching the gospel from the pulpit, and I became suddenly so ill that I was compelled to stop before my sermon was finished. It was a bad case of nervous prostration, and for a time my friends and family were greatly exercised over my condition. Complete rest was imperative, and Mrs. Chapin and I planned and took a long trip. My health was sufficiently restored to resume work, but I was not the same man. I felt absolutely worthess physically and mentally. I had so lost control of my muscles that my fingers would involuntarily release their grip upon a pen, and my hand would turn over with absolutely no volition on my part. About two years ago, to intensify mattic, I, I was eized with a severe attack of la grippe. I recovered only partially from it and had frequent returns of that indescribable feeling which accompanies and follows that irrange malady. I looked in vain for something to bring relief and finally I read of Dr. Williams' Pink Pilis for Pale People. Something seemed to tell me that they would do me good and I commenced using them. They gave me additional strength from the start, and toned up my system from a condition of almost absolute prostration so that I was an inster. The improvement was simply marvellous, and the credit is due Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Mrs. Chapin was present during the conversation and said: 'I don't think Mr. Chapin could ever have resumed his Williams' Pink Pills.

Mrs. Chapin was present during the conversation and said: 'I don't think Mr. Chapin could ever have resumed his preaching after he had the attack of la grippe had it not been for Pink Pills. They did him so much good that I decided to try their efficacy on myself. I have been troubled for years with what our physiciam, Dr. Hewitt, called rheumatic paralysis, and since taking the Pink Pills I have been stronger and the pain in my right arm and hand is less acute. We keep the pills in the house all the time, and they do me a great deal of good in the way of toning up my system and strengthening me".

In all cases like the above Pink Pills offer a speedy and certain cure.

JUST A WORD.

Within the last few weeks accounts have been sent to those who read Grip every week but have not paid for it. A large number owe for longer or shorter periods previous to the suspension of Grip in July, 1893, as well as for the present year. We want all these old arrears to be wiped off. The list came into our hands when Grip was revived and we paid hard cash for it, which we would like to get back. We know times are hard, but they are hard for us as well as for you, and as "mony littles mak' a muckle," the small sums you owe aggregate a large amount. Come, now, you won't miss the small sum, while it will help to replenish our coffers and make us happy. Look at your address label, and if you are not clear on Grip's hooks let him hear from you by next mail.

A Fountain Pen is a good thing, provided you get the right kind at a moderate price. Fountain pens have hitherto been too high in price to come into general use. But the problem has been solved, and a good pen is now offered FOR ONE DOLLAR, free by post. This is not a cheap imitation, but a genuine gutta percha holder, with non-corrodible iridium pointed nib, from a first-class English firm. The nibs are furnished in fine, medium and broad, and as there is a twin feed the flow of ink is steady and reliable. Gold nils, and holders with gold bands at higher prices, but the DOLIAR PEN is just as well adapted for everyday use.

The Neptune (for that is its name) is a favorite in England for short hand writers and others, but this is the first time, we believe, it has been offered for sale in Canada. The holder contains ink enough for two days steady writing.

Can be had by addressing J.J. Bell, GRIP Office, 81 Adelaide St., West, Toronto.
