FARMERS

Read the following Testimonial from Mr. G. F. Frankland, Canadian Cattle Exporter:

LIVERPOOL, May 28th, 1878.

MR. JOHN LUMBERS,

DEAR SIR,—You will be pleased to hear of my arrival in England, and that my large cargo of Canadian cattle arrived at this port in splendid condition, thanks to your GREAT DEVONSHIRE CATTLE FOOD, making in all shipped from Canada during the last four years about 17,000 HEAD OF CATTLE AND SHEEP.

It at all times revived and gave them an appetite. Several of the young heifers ceased to chew their cud, but a prompt application of your FOOD caused them to regain it, confirming my opinion before expressed of your excellent preparation some years ago, which I still retain.

Yours, &c.,

G. F. FRANKLAND.
