Mercantile Summary.

AN ENTERPRISING resident of British Columbia has started a beet sugar factory on a small scale. It would be interesting to know if his calculations embrace the possible contingency of paying an excise duty, as the fear of that has deterred the prosecution of similar enterprises in this eastern part of the Dominion.

IT APPEARS from the petroleum statistics for the Pennsylvania region for the month of September, that the combination have exerted a most important influence on the production of, and trade in, this article. A decrease in the production at the rate of 487 bris per day as compared with Sept., 1871, is shown, a falling off in the amount of stock of 36,987 bris, and a reduction in shipments as compared with August of 73,892 bris. By our weekly petroleum letter, elsewhere, it will be seen that a large advance in prices has taken place.

A LAW enforced in Newfoundland preventing any individual or company from owning over 200 acres of land for lumbering purposes is said to have prevented large investments by New Brunswick and Canada capitalists in the lumber districts of that Island. Such a law doubtless has the salutary effect of preserving
