

He was elected Chairman of the contracting parties of GATT in the autumn of 1962 and re-elected in 1964.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

He became Deputy Minister of Trade and Commerce in July 1964.

In October 1971, Mr. Warren was appointed Canadian

High Commissioner to London, a position he held until February 1975, when he was named Canadian Ambassador to Washington.

Nov. 1/77

- Speech by Ambassador Warren to the Canadian Export Association

Nov. 11/77

- Speech by Ambassador Warren to the Canadian Manufacturers Association

Dec. 3/77

- Speech by Ambassador Warren to the Canadian Industrial Association

Dec. 15/77

- Bulletin No. 1 - MTE Situation Report

Jan. 17/78

- Address by Ambassador Warren to the Chamber of Commerce in Montreal

Jan. 25/78

- Canada Table Statement on Participation in the MTE

Jan. 24/78

- Statement by Ambassador Warren in Ottawa on January 24/78

Feb. 9/78

- Address by Ambassador Warren to the House of Commons in Ottawa