BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

QUESTION AS TO APPOINTMENT OF RADIO
BROADCASTING COMMITTEE

On the orders of the day:

Mr. Donald M. Fleming (Eglinton): I should like to ask the Minister of National Revenue when he intends to proceed with the notice of motion standing in his name, on the order paper, having to do with the radio broadcasting committee.

Hon. J. J. McCann (Minister of National Revenue): It will be proceeded with just as soon as some of the more urgent matters have been dealt with.

NOTICE OF MOTION RESPECTING GENEVA
AGREEMENT

On the orders of the day:

Right Hon. L. S. St. Laurent (Prime Minister): The last government notice of motion on today's order paper, with respect to the general agreement on tariffs and trade, is inscribed in the name of the Secretary of State for External Affairs. It was intended to be in the name of the Prime Minister, in accordance with the practice of former years. I would ask that the necessary change be made.

COMMONWEALTH CONFERENCE

QUESTION AS TO DATE AND CANADIAN REPRESENTATION

On the orders of the day:

Mr. Gordon Graydon (Peel): On previous occasions questions have been directed to the Secretary of State for External Affairs (Mr. Pearson), who at the moment is not in his seat, with respect to the proposed conference of commonwealth prime ministers. I should like to ask the Prime Minister when the conference is to take place, and who will represent Canada. I ask this question because of the news items which have persistently
