

McGill University,
Montreal.
March 31, 1927.

Sir Arthur W. Currie, G.C.M.G., K.C.B.,
Principal, McGill University,
Montreal.

Dear Sir Arthur:-

In connection with the debating team which was chosen by the Committee and submitted to you for approval, we are sorry to have to inform you that Mr. F.R. Scott is unable to make the trip to the Old Country. This is due to the fact that he is writing off his Bar examinations this summer.

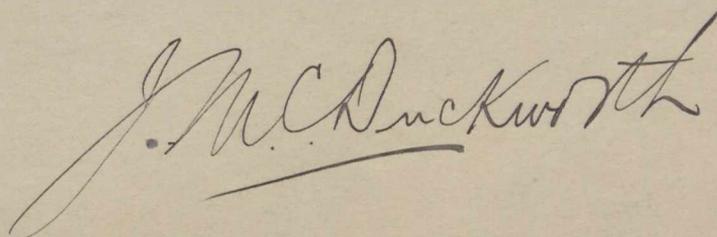

As was indicated in our first letter to you, our next choice is Mr. W.F. Kelloway. The Committee has considered the matter again and we have come to the same conclusion that Mr. Kelloway should be the third man on the team representing McGill. We trust you will give your approval of the team as it now stands:-

Bernard M. Alexandor
Alex G. Nairn
W.F. Kelloway

As soon as we get your approval the names of the team will be forwarded to Major Ney and arrangements made for the completion of details regarding the trip.

Might I again suggest that you write Major Ney giving your official approval of the team as representative of McGill.

Yours very truly,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, reading "J. M. Duckworth". The signature is written in a cursive style with a long, sweeping underline that extends to the left and then underlines the name.

President, Literary and Debating Society.