

tion that has for ages
got the wounds we re-
tension of the empire;
your consideration; if
fluence on you hearts,
your indignation at the
your honour, your li-

ch we are reduced, we anticipate and sympa-
nd inconsiderate coun-
an empire, which has
; and call God to wit-
roperty, endanger our liberty to redeem you

ours; e'er this reaches us; let us then (before obliterated) once more
er grateful in our ears.
, and the destruction
id countrymen, on the

CONGRESS.
OCK, President.