

Army and Navy Veterans 1866—in Canada—1917

Motto:—"Shoulder to Shoulder."

INCORPORATED JANUARY 22ND, 1915

HEADQUARTERS:
WINNIPEG, MAN.

This Association is the legitimate issue of an assembly of Veterans of former campaigns. Originally it was composed of volunteers who answered to the call of the Canadian Government for active service during the Fenian Raids of 1866, 1870 and 1871, the Red River Expedition of 1870, and the North-West Rebellion of 1885.

Veterans from East Indies and Soudan Campaigns, Asiatic and African Military Expeditions, Imperial, Canadian, Australian, New Zealand and South African Veterans of the Boer War, strengthened the organization by becoming active members. More force was gained by the extension of the same equal rights to long service men, and Army and Navy Veterans of the wars of the Empire, whether on land or sea. Any soldier or sailor who served his country and holds a good conduct discharge, or is still in the service is a comrade who can qualify. The Veterans make no exceptions—There are none.

Can Veterans of the Empire forget the heroes of the Khyber Pass, Balclava, Majuba Hill, Abyssinian Expedition, Ashantee, the Nile and Soudan Campaigns? Would any Association, Military or Naval, place the "bar sinister" against the soldier or sailor engaged? Could an organ-
