

TORONTO HORSEMEN TODAY GO TO OTTAWA ICE RACES

Grand Opera and Royal Grattan Likely to Meet in Free-For-All or Extra Event — Good Track and Fine Grand Stand.

It is expected that about fifty of the Toronto horsemen will go by special car to Ottawa tonight. Among the number are Messrs. Smith and Proctor, owner of Grand Opera; J. E. Gray, owner of Royal Grattan; and J. T. Hutton, owner of Margot Leonard; R. J. McBride, owner of Nettie Ethon; J. McLean, owner of Clara Paul; Jas. Smith, Jas. Nesbitt, R. T. Smith, Chas. S. Allen, Geo. Harrison, Wm. Hunter, W. A. McCullough, Geo. Beddingfield, Frank Rogers, Wm. Robinson, J. Fleming, O. Coulomb, and others. The race will be held in all probability be the best ice meeting ever held in Ottawa. The stands are complete, the enclosure nicely heated and electric lighted, also a comfortable booth heated for ladies and a bar as well as fine cooking-out sheds for the horses. The ice at the present time is 25 inches thick on the home stretch, and the present weather probabilities it will likely be at least three feet before the meeting opens.

A special train of palace horse cars goes to Ottawa, carrying $250,000 worth of horse flesh to compete in the different events. A great deal of interest centers in the two green horses, Grand Opera and Royal Grattan. The latter will start in the 2:35 pace and the former in the 2:14 pace and is just possible, and in fact, highly probable, that these two grand horses will meet in a race, the free-for-all or an extra put on as an added attraction. The Fitch Bros., Messrs. William and George, will have charge of the spectacle and the meeting, and it is said to be the ears of many to hear Billy sell the pools. He is recognized as the best pooler in America, and his brother George runs him close. They no doubt, will be pleased to meet all their old friends and many new ones.

The track is in the best of condition. It is eighty feet wide in the turn and has been carefully prepared for good footing and fast going. The grand stands will accommodate between six and seven thousand people. All the horses have been getting their final preparations for this meet, and it is confidently expected that the records will receive a jump at this meeting.

The Dominion House is in session, which will also add interest to the trip. Mr. Chas. T. McKinnon, who is at the head of the Ottawa House, will be at the head of the Ottawa House, which can also be had from N. A. Proctor of the Windsor House, which will come in around noon today and be on view tonight.

The Dominion Construction Company bought 20 horses of the best of the season, and the standard was pretty well met by night. A good sale on Tuesday was most agreeable to the Repository management, for it will make plenty of horses for the 18 horses from the Crutcher Park Farm, Galt, which will come in around noon today and be on view tonight.
