

It is also advised that Bible Schools for Scriptural instruction be established in each Meeting. As we are never too old to study the Scriptures it is earnestly recommended that all our members should connect themselves with these schools, either as pupils, members of Bible Classes or as teachers.