

CHANGES IN PUBLIC OFFICES.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.—The business of the customs is now being done in the Museum, Post Office Building, Water-st. West of the Post Office an examining warehouse is being erected, and the walls of the old warehouse on Queen's wharf are being covered in to make a bond store.

The Receiver General's office and Treasury Department are in the Financial Secretary's Office, in the basement of the Colonial Building :—Office hours, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m ; pay days :—Tuesdays and Fridays.

THE SURVEYOR GENERAL'S DEPARTMENT is located in the Legislative Council Clerk's office, Colonial Building.

THE CHIEF CLERK AND REGISTRAR of the Supreme Court has his office, for the present, in the Reporter's room, basement of the Colonial Building, but will remove in a few days to a new office, near the ruins of the Court-house.

THE SAVINGS' BANK has got back to its old quarters in the basement of the Colonial Building—the first door at the foot of the staircase.

THE MUNICIPAL OFFICES:—The Water Department, Engineer's Department, Secretary's office and Council room are in the Fish-market, Cliff's cove, where the Council meetings are held, as usual, every Thursday afternoon. Orders for John Flynn, waterman, to be left at this office between the hours of 10 a.m. and 4 p.m., each day.

THE POLICE COURT, Magistrates' Court and Central District Court are in the Reading-room, Sailors' Home ; Lock-up, Fort Townshend.

---

POSTAL INFORMATION.

It is understood that a mail packet will be immediately placed on White Bay, to connect with the coastal steamers' mails. It is reported that information will be received by the return of the "Virginia Lake" that this packet has commenced the service, which will include Jackson's Arm and Western Cove.

It is contemplated that the days of arrival of the Allan steamers from Halifax for England will be changed from