FIVE HEATS TO DECIDE 2.35 PACE AT MONTREAL

Bedford Bros.' Ritchie Finally Lands—Margot Leonard Takes 2.19 in Straight Heats.

MONTREAL, Jan. 19.—Despite the unfavorable weather, there was a big crowd at Delorimier Park to witness the opening races of the Montreal Driving Club this afternoon and so well contested was the 2.35 pace that everybody stayed to see the finish of the fifth heat, when the Bedford Bros. entry, Ritchie, nosed out a pretty victory from Dimity, Nat Ray's fast little mare. This race looked like a sure thing for Ritchie after the second heat, the bay romping in a comparatively easy winner in this, as well as the first heat, but Jennie Hal, who had been running second in the first two heats, went away with a rush in the third and with Dimity a close second, won the best race of the afternoon. Dimity took the fourth heat. The best Ritchie could do in this session was a poor fifth, but in the fifth he pulled down first money, Jennie Hal getting second money, Dimity third and the Houde entry from Nicolet, Manslen Girl took the fouth money.

There was only one contender in the 2.19 trot, Margot Leonard, the J. T. Hudson entry, taking the first three heats in easy fashion. Second money was won by George Kaplan, the bay gelding owned by W. H. McPherson of Ottawa. Last Edition, a Nicolet horse, owned by L. N. D. Houde, was third, while the fourth prize went to Mary Isabel, C. W. Leeming's mare. Bedford, owner and driver of Ritchie, who won the 2.35 pace, was fined $25 for holding up a heat. The officials were: Frank G. Smith of Buffalo, starter; Wm. Moffatt, Picton, Ont., presiding judge; J. A. St. Germain and D. Richard, both of Montreal, associate judges; A. A. Gingras, clerk of the course. Following is a summary of the races:

Maher's Big Sale of Heavy Workers All Sold Well

The sale at Maher's yesterday was the largest Thursday sale this season. The offering of heavy work horses was exceptionally good, being above the average in quality. There was a considerable number of out-of-town buyers on the floor, and some brisk bidding resulted. John McConnell of Lanigan, Sask., made up a carload of 15 horses of extra good quality. He got a nice stout bay mare for $155, another bay mare for $165, and a brown mare for $182. He also purchased a couple of nice classy teams; one, a pair of chestnuts, brought $300; while he was fortunate in securing a handsome pair of bays for $282.

The T. Eaton Co. purchased one handsome grey driving mare, and George Eaton made up a car of good high-class heavy work horses, which he intends to ship to the west. He paid $245 for a big bay mare, weighing 1500, and $222.50 for a brown mare. This seemed good buying, as the animals certainly looked well worth the money. He also bought a handsome pair of chestnut mares for $460. This pair were particularly well matched and will be used for breeding purposes in the west. It might be mentioned Mr. Eaton bought nothing but mares, and was willing to pay a price when the article was good.

The Pine Lumber Co. of Pine, Ont., bought a car of work horses for use in the bush. Some of the most noticeable were: A stout black mare, which they paid $182.50 for; also a bay gelding for $190. They also bought two nice teams, one a bay gelding and a brown mare, for $340, and a brown gelding and black mare for $375. Henry Shepherd bought a bay gelding for $225. This was a good-looking horse. James Hall of Drumquin, Ont., got a bay gelding for $75. E. Wirch-ing, Preston, Ont., got a black mare for $185.

J. H. McMichael is getting ready a load to ship west, and made several nice purchases yesterday. He got a handsome bay gelding for $152.50; also a well set up bay mare, for $140, both particularly good buying. William Stevens paid $160 for a bay gelding and A. R. Speers is busy getting another load ready for the west.

Mr. P. Maher went on the block himself yesterday and sold his white mule for $8, asking $10 deposit. Asked as to the mule's age, he refused to answer, but later on stated that the animal was believed to have been in the war of 1812. Several city horses were disposed of; also considerable harness, robes and blankets. The management were delighted with the sale, and Auctioneers George Jackson of Port Perry and George Finch of Hamilton were certainly kept busy.

The next sale at Maher's will be on Monday, Jan. 23, when fully 500 horses will be ready for sale.

Allan Johnston McGill Rugby Captain.

MONTREAL, Jan. 19.—Allan Johnston has been elected captain of the McGill senior Rugby team for next season. Johnston is an Ottawa boy, and in addition to playing a good game on the wing line of a football team, is a hockey player of more than ordinary ability, having played goal on the McGill seven.

JERSEY CITY'S NEW TEAM

Manager Ryan Hopes to Land McMillan—The Line Up.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Manager Jack Ryan of Jersey City has been a busy magnate all winter, with such good results that he has practically a new team lined up to represent the Skeeters this year. Ryan is shy only a second baseman and a shortstop. He has hopes of landing Tommy McMillan for short field.

Cincinnati has no use for McMillan, and is ready to turn him over to Jersey City. But Brooklyn so far has refused to waive. Ebbets acted in behalf of John Ganzel in the matter. But John now has Eddie Foster for his Bronchos and is hardly expected to throw obstacles in the way of strengthening a tail-end rival.

Ryan has seven pitchers—Bumpus Jones, Jack Frill, "Rube" Kissinger, Bartley, Justus M. Moore and Mercer. Frill and Moore are southpaws. Moore was with the Pirates a time last year. Ryan has four catchers besides himself—Larry Spahr, Butler, Wills and Schang. The outfield will consist of Jake Gettman, Deininger and Wheeler. Abstein and Bolan will play at first and third bases respectively.

Speed Skating Championship.
