-Items of Interest Picked Up All Over.

NORTH TORONTO, Oct. 13.—(Spe-dial.)—Before Magistrate Ramsden, James McComb of Merton-street was his morning assessed $2 for riding his motorcycle along that thorofare in the early hours of the morning. For riving his auto without a tail light, ohn Firstbrook was fined $2, and tharles Bemis $2 for riding a bicycle on the sidewalk.

don Firstbrook was fined $2, and John Firstbrook was fined $2, and Charles Bemis $2 for riding a bicycle on the sidewalk.

The Nicholas Garland matter of a fixed assessment for ten years as a return for the latter's easement rights on a trunk sewer thru his property still hangs fire. When all the council are there, a majority exists in its devor, but about the last thing brought up on Tuesday night was this Garland trouble, and in Councillor Patterson's temporary absence the mayor chival-rously refrained from voting.

Around town there is mighty little satisfaction expressed at the council's decision to fix the date of sitting on Saturday afternoons. Nobody would have objected fo the small honorarium, but Saturday of all days for a council meeting. It is safe to say that if the town is not absorbed by the city before another year, and the North Toronto Council eits on a Saturday afternoon, there will not alone be no quorum two-inirds of the time, but no press representatives to record the doings. Any day but Saturday.

N. J. Clarke of Broadway-avenue has returned from a short holiday.

John Henderson's condition at St. Midnael's Hospital was reported tonight to be a little improved.

North Toronto people are sorry to lose Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ward of Yonge-street, Eglinton, who have removed to Dufferin-street.

MILLIKEN'S CORNERS, Oct. 19.—
(Special.)—There is bound to be a big list of entries at the annual match of the East, York Plowmen's Association, which takes place on the farm of Alex Donaldson, on concession 5 of Markham on Wednesday, Nov. 1. Over. $300 has been collected in prizes, and a big list of entries, larger, in fact, than for has been collected in prizes, and a big list of entries, larger, in fact, than for some years, is likely. The land on Mr. Donaldson's farm is admirably adapted for superior work, and the Agincourt Branch of the Women's Institute will, as in former years, provide hot meals to all those who may desire it at a nominal figure. Some idea of the interest being aroused may be gathered from the fact that past experts in the art of high-class plowing, as William Milliken sr., will reenter the lists in the hope of wresting back long-lost laurels. Everybody, whether a contributor to the prize list or no, is heartily invited to attend the match. The keen, tho friendly, rivalry engendered, together with the high quality of the work, cannot fail to exercise a most beneficial effect.

KING PLOWMEN. Match This Year Will Be Along Line of Schomberg Branch. The annual match of the King Plowmen's Association, which takes place at Eversley on Wednesday, Nov. 3, at Eversley on Wednesday, Nov. 3, gives promise of being one of the best ever held by this progressive association. A generous list of donations is already assured, and the prizes will be well worth competing for. The copious rains have given the ground a thoro soaking, and it looks as the both the red land and the sod will be in the pink of condition. The Metropolitan Railway have agreed to run a special train from Oak Ridges Junction, on the Schomberg branch, out to Eversley, passing right by the field and leaving Oak Ridges about noon. The definite time of leaving will be announced later.

GOOD ROADS SCHEME. Not Much to Show Yet, But Time Will

Tell the Story. There is undoubtedly a good deal of complaint, more particularly thruout the southern end of the county at the the southern end of the county at the apparent delay in the pushing on of the work of the "good roads" scheme and the small amount of work already completed. It is a long time now since the commission assumed control, and while ceriain delays were to be expected in the initial stages, such as the lack of broken stone and difficulty in securing teams, the charge is made that not enough return is being received from the indney paid out. The loss is attributed to inexperience, which time will remedy.
