Thousands Spend Day at Kew and Balmy Beaches-Funeral of Mr. Marshall-Items.

BALMY BEACH, Aug. 5 .- In point of attendance and in the interest maniested thruout the entire proceedings, the annual sports and games of the Balmy Beach Club, held here to-day, easily constituted a new record in the history of the association. The weather, while not ideal, was fairly good, and the fears of the executive early in the day, that the east wind would render necessary a postponement of the aquatic sports, were fortunately not realized. Little or no difficulty was experienced on this score. aquatic sports were unfailing in their efforts to keep everything running in good order, and on schedule time, and in this they succeeded admirably. The balconies of the Balmy Beach Club house, thronged as they were

with the lady friends of the members, presented a charming scene, and added greatly to the pleasures of the occa Many of the private houses tastefully decorated with flags and ounting, and in the evening brilliantly illuminated with Chinese lanterns.
