There is no red-tape attached to the efforts of the Army & Navy Veterans.

There are no expensive clubhouses or large paid staffs to maintain.

Its work is done with an absolute minimum of administrative cost-and, until now, without public appeal for funds.

Every cent spent is the result of a direct, personal and voluntary investigation on the part of its officers and members, having as its object the assistance and betterment of veterans and their dependents in ways untouched by government or municipal effort.

The record of this work is open to public inspection at any time.

To carry on our departments for the coming year in the City of Toronto will necessitate a larger expenditure than can possibly be met by the members themselves.

Help us to hasten the re-establishment and suftable employment of returned men.

Help us to render assistance to dependents through those who personally know their needs. Help us to secure equitable adjustment of soldiers' and dependents' claims.

Help us to maintain our efforts to obtain military burial, at the cost of the public they have served, for deceased ex-soldiers.

Help us to spread good-cheer to veterans' families at the Christmas Season—to supply necessities to offset the cold of winter—to provide outings that will relieve the heat and danger of a city's summer-to furnish ready assistance in cases of sickness and distress.

Help us to maintain a conservative body of veterans whose every private endeavor is for the public good-whose efforts are endorsed by representative citizens in every walk of life.

The long drawn out fight in the province of Quebec between the Reman Catholic National Association of Workers and the international associations has at last come to a head in the shipyards of that province. Harry Kerwin, president of the Canadian council of the metal trades sec-tion of the American Federation of Labor, stated yesterday afternoon that an agreement had been drawn up between the shipyard operators and the metal trades council for an increase in wages to a dollar an hour with a 44-hour week. WAR VETERANS DECRY

Kingston, March 23. — The advisory committee, composed of members of the local branches of the Great Warr Veterans and the Army and Navy Veterans have passed a resolution condemning the reclassification of the civil service list by a Chicago expert, thru which the soldier particularly in the employ of the D.S.C.R. was the greatest sufferer. The American appointment was considered an insult to Canadian intelligence, the committee feeling that Canada should be able to furnish men who could have done the work for the government as well as an importation. The committee also went on record to the effect "that all men being sent to positions by the employment bureau shall first be medically examined and their fitness for the work they are intended for, be certified to before they are refused participation in the fund set aside for the assistance of the soldier."

This band will be available for the machine gunners' nights on Thursdays and for such concerts, smokers, etc., as may be given for the members of the unit, their wives and friends.

It has been noted that many of the younger brothers of those who have signified their intention of keeping up the military record established in their families by entering this unit.
