Ottawa, May 5.—(By The Canadian Press).—J. F. Armstrong, M.P., Lambton, is to apply for a commission to inquire into and report on the necessity of bringing the control of rates on inland water borne traffic and coastwise shipping under control of the railway board. It is not the intention to have the mayor go thru the usual form of extending the freedom of the city to the visitors, because there will not be time for that formally, but the vote of welcome from the city council, in the form of a resolution, will be presented to the Winnipeggers thru officials of the Sydney Trades and Labor Council, which endorsed the city council maneuver last night.
