Patrick Would Play. Games in Winnipeg

Coast Teams Will Be Late-British Columbia and Alberta After the Allan Cup.

An offer to stage the world's hockey series in Winnipeg next month went forward yesterday from the Pacific Coast Hockey Association to President Frank Calder of the National Hockey League. Frank Patrick, head of the coast organization, in submitting his plans for this season's Stanley Cup series, informed the eastern officials that the coast chambut suggested that, in view of upsatisfactory result of last season's series, that Winnipeg should be selected as the battleground this season between the game in the prairie capital on March 19.

game in the prairie capital on March 19.

That Winnipeg is also figuring in the big series was indicated on receipt of a letter from W. J. Holmes, owner of the Amphitheatre Rink in the prairie capital, in which the latter puts forward a plan similar to President Patrick. The Coast League's proposition had already gone forward before the Winnipeg offer arrived, but Holmes states that he has already opened negotiations with Frank Calder of the eastern body.

carried to an extra end in the first three draws.

Whyte of Duluth and Dunlop of St. Paul won two successive victories in the Dingwall today. Three of the wins were handed out to the Winnipeg rink. Dunbar of Eveleth, Minn., won his first game in this event, but was knocked out in the next round by the strong Crystal City rink, skipped by McNamee, by the close score of 9 to 8. Grey of Grand Forks, N.D., fell an easy prey to Tench of Swan Lake, taking the short end of a 15-to-4 score, but in the first round of the Purity Flour redeemed himself by disposing of Herchmer of Fernie, B.C., 12 to 9.

Rutledge of Fort William won his first game in the Dingwall event yesterday afternoon, but was knocked out in the second round, the scores being 15 to 9 and 9 to 11. In both contests he was opposed by city rinks. McLaughlin of Kenora disposed of two worthy opponents in the one o'clock and four o'clock draws of the Dingwall competition, his first victim being Southam of Roland, from whom he won, 12 to 5, and the second, Lee of Winnipeg, winning, 16 to 10.

SOME BALL DEALS

Chicago, Feb. 11.-Club owners of the major leagues, meeting in joint session today, received recommendations of the joint nominating committee for chairman of the National Baseball Commission, to succeed August Herrmann. whose resignation became effective today. Five names were submitted, and final decision was left to Presidents John Heydler of the National League and B. B. Johnson of the American League, who will announce their decision at their discretion. The names submitted, according to club-owners, were: Judge K. M. Landis, Chicago; William Edwards, New York; State Senator J. E. Walker, New York; Harvey T. Woodruff, sporting editor of The Chicago Tribune, and J. Conway Toole, New York.

Of the foregoing names, those of Senator Walker and Mr. Woodruff were most prominently spoken of for the poinost prominently spoken of for the position.

A resolution commending the work of Herrmann as chairman of the National Commission was adopted by the sixteen club-owners.

While owners of the American League franchises refused early today to discuss the "Pact of Chicago," which ended the factional fight in the organization, supporters of the minority faction, which included Jacob Ruppert, New York; Harry Frazee, Boston, and Chas. Comiskey, Chicago, claimed a victory for their side and asserted that "Johnson's wings had been clipped."
