First-Baseman Ganzel of the New York Americans and Catcher McGuire of the same team, formerly of Toronto, are negotiating for the purchase of the Grand Rapids franchise in the Central League from its present owners, who ask $10,000. The lease of the Philadelphia National League baseball grounds has been disposed of by the sheriff. The only bidder was R. H. Ennis, representing Arthur Newboldtrustee for the stockholders, who purchased the lease for $402. President Pulliam of the National League was present at the sale. He declined to say whether the franchise would be taken by new owners or whether the club would be reorganized by the stockholders who forced the sale. It is generally believed the latter action will be taken.

Scorn it.

Hamilton, Nov. 4.—(Special.)—It is among the possibilities that Hamilton will wake up one of these fine morning in the city. The demands made by the city upon the company include one requiring enclosed vestibules to placed on both ends of all the cars, for the protection of motormen and conductors. The company was only given till Nov. 1 to comply with the demand, and notice was served on it that the city would take steps to exact that was run without enclosed vestibules.

Since the service was cut down, the company has been running only 35 cars. Nobody around the city all has paid any attention to the threat. No move to call a meeting of the council has been made, and none of the aldermen have any fear that the company will carry out its threat, tho they admit that the management during the last few months has been so eccentric and erratic taht they would not be surprised at anything the company will carry out its threat, tho they admit that the management during the last few months has been so eccentric and erratic taht they would not be surprised at anything the company way do.

The 13th Regiment made a good showing at the annual inspection this evening. They turned out 503 strong. Col. Otter, the inspecting officer, complimented Col. Stoneman on the fine appearance and efficiency of the corps. The longshoremen, who were locked out a few days ago by several local firms, complained to the trades and labor council this evening that one of the foreigners employed in their places carried a revolver, and yet the police had not prosecuted him for carrying an unlawful weapon. They also stated to work on Sunday, while the police tower worked on Sunday. Unless the firms come to a settlement with the Britts.

with him. It was a great night for the Britts.

Jimmy Britt was in good spirits when he talked to-day, and he had a few words to say about Young Corbett.

"I see where Corbett says I lost the feather-weight championship," Jimmy said.
"I wonder by what process he figures that out. According to my idea, I simply went out to grab another championship, and I missed by my own carelessness. I am still Corbett's competitor and will remain such until I fight him again. I did not lose any feather-weight title, for I did not box Gans for it. You can't lose something you did not have at stake.

"Now, in regard to Corbett: I will attend to him after he is thru with Nelson. Then we will sit down and talk over terms. I will gift him at a weight I think I will be strong at. It may be 130 and it may be more. I'll do the dictating."

Britt is thinking of going to Philadelphia to box some six-round bouts.
"I want to keep on fighting," continued Jimmy. "I feel like it. I am strong and hearty and I am in a spirit to fight. Shortly, I expect to hear from the east about some matches."
