"THE HEINTZMAN & CO. Piano is the Standard of Artistic Excellence."

Every now and again we try and say something new about the famous

HEINTZMAN & CO. PIANO

(Made by ye olde firme of Heintzman & Co., Limited) but its popularity has made it so well known that we have only to mention the name and the rest is known. You will find this favorate instrument in the schools, colleges, music halls and homes of culture the wide Dominion over. A piano noted for its artistic finish and durability.

"The Heintzman & Co. pianos are beautiful instruments. The singing qualities pleased me very much."—Antoinette Trebelli.

WOMEN TO SERVE STATE

Year of Voluntary Service Advocated by German Papers.

Berlin, Jan. 6.—A number of representative German papers are discussing with all seriousness the proposition of Dr. Ida Hilsiker of Zurich, that women be called upon to serve the state one year, after the analogy of military service of men. The majority do not go so far as Dr. Hilsiker in demanding compulsory service, pointing out that the cost is prohibitive, but suggests that a year of voluntary service might have many advantages, especially educational and disciplinary.

The state, it is argued, could utilize women in army hospitals, asylums, public nurseries, and also to train in the household arts.

WORSHIPS THE WAR GOD

Roosevelt Holds Himself Up as Counterpart of Wilhelm II.

Washington, Jan. 6.—During the consideration of the fortifications expropriation bill in the house to-day, Mr. Bakewell (New York) vigorously condemned the bill as a waste of public money, when it was suggested that he quote Scripture. "Oh," said he, "when we are led by a man who worships the war god, who wants to hold himself up in the United States as the equal, as the equivalent, as the counterpart, of Wilhelm II, the great war dog; when an administration is dominated by such a spirit as that, what a farce it is to talk about scriptural quotations. What a farce it is to talk about anything in the interest of peace."

The house passed the fortifications bill without amendment and adjourned until Monday.

Connellsville, Pa., Jan. 6.—A freight train of forty loaded cars was wrecked at Glencoe, ten miles east of Sand Patch tunnel, on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad to-day, and four unknown tramps killed.

GOT ALONG.

A Pretty Girl of 17 With Energy.

"During the winter of 1901-02 (I was then 17 years of age) I attended a grammar school in Rolla, North Dakota, staying with some friends of ours and working for my board between school hours.

I used to get up early in the morning to do my housework, but as those people got up very late I would not cook breakfast but only make the coffee. Tired of working, and in a hurry to go to school, I would eat but a snack and a cup of strong coffee for my breakfast, and it was not long until I got to be nervous, had headaches and could not sleep.

"One day our Prof. Young was telling us what effect coffee had on one's system. I compared his words with how I felt, and found that coffee was ruining my health. So I tried to quit but found I was a slave to it, but quit just the same. I did not know what to drink—I hated milk or tea, so I would drink nothing but water; got poor and thin and finally left school to remove to Selma, Wash., where at present, by the constant use of Postum, you can find me a bright, healthy girl. After we settled down papa opened a grocery store.

"At this time I was so ill I could not do a thing, and mamma was anxious about me. She would prepare some coffee and try to have me drink it in place of water, but every time I drank it I noticed it made me worse. One day while I was looking around in the store I noticed your Postum as a food drink. I asked papa if he knew what it was, but he said he did not, but found he had to keep it, so I took a package of it home and said I would try it, made it according to directions and it was delicious. After using Postum two weeks, I was much less nervous and noticed I was getting a little fatter, so I persuaded mamma to use it for the whole family. Everyone of them liked it, and now they all complain if they cannot have Postum.

"After a while I got to be healthy and tired of being indoors I went out to take orders for the store, and many a customer I persuaded to use Postum.

"One lady told me that they used coffee because they could get premiums for the wrappers, but she admitted they did not like coffee at all. I left them a package of Postum on trial and the next time I came around she returned it—said they did not like it. She hadn't made it right. It was about dinner time, so I said: 'Let me make it for you; I am sure you will like it.' so I prepared the drink according to directions and had dinner with them and they all said it was delicious, and have used nothing else since. That lady thanked me afterwards for Postum: it improved their health, she said." Name given by Postum Company, Battle Creek, Mich.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Cobourg, Jan. 6.—(Special.)—The West Hastings bogus ballot case has been again brought to notice in West Northumberland. The Cobourg World (Liberal) publishes in its weekly issue what purports to be a retraction of certain libellous statements which appeared in its issue subsequent to the federal elections in November re the telegram sent to other constituencies warning electors of the nefarious work discovered in Hastings on the eve of election. The editor of The World, T. B. Lapp, has been given the opportunity by Mr. Porter of making a full retraction, but instead has published a statement teeming with insinuations towards Mr. Porter, and its publication, in view of present political events, has caused considerable warmth of feeling amongst West Northumberland Conservatives, who now look to Mr. Porter to demand full and unreserved retraction.

F. M. FIELD,
Conservative Candidate in West Northumberland.

Rev. Principal D. M. Gordon of Queen's University will address the Canadian Club on Monday on "Political Purity."

The minister of education was asked by The World yesterday about his alleged convention with the coalition proposals to Mr. Whitney.

"I don't know whether you care to say so," he replied, "but I know absolutely nothing about it. That is the exact truth."

W. S. Calvert, the Dominion whip, has charge of the premier's interests in West Middlesex.

The premier was in his office yesterday at the Parliament Buildings, back from Ingersoll and Mount Brydges. The inclement day diminished the number of callers. He will speak at some meetings next week, but no dates, it was stated, had been definitely arranged.

Hon. John Dryden will speak at Oshawa on Wednesday, and will be accompanied by T. C. Robinette, K.C., who has made a series of engagements for the campaign.

Deseronto, Jan. 6.—It is announced today that a series of meetings have been arranged for throut the riding of East Hastings in the interests of Mr. Richardson, the Conservative candidate. At each meeting, in addition to the addresses which will be given, a concert company has been engaged and free entertainment will be rendered.

BREVITIES

The natural history section of the Canadian Institute will be addressed on Monday night by R. W. King on the "Breeding of Silkworms." J. B. Williams, F. Z. S., will speak on "Butterfly Wings," with microscopical illustrations.

John Edmunds, who escaped from jail, and was recaptured after a few days, will serve 6 months in the Central.

H. E. Minnice used $45 of his employers' money in an unsuccessful attempt to pick the winners on a southern track. He was given a 30-day sentence.

It is expected that a party of half a hundred local auto enthusiasts will leave on Jan. 15 to attend the automobile show at Madison-square Garden.

Mr. A. S. Vogt, conductor of the Mendelssohn Choir, who has been spending some days in Pittsburg in connection with the orchestral rehearsals for the society's concerts in February, returned to the city this week. Mr. Vogt was very much impressed with the efficiency of the orchestra and the high standard of their work this season, having had the privilege of attending one of the concerts of the regular series of the Pittsburg Orchestra at Carnegie Hall. Mr. Paur, the new conductor of the orchestra, expressed great interest in the work of our local society, and is looking forward with much pleasure to their engagement in this city. He is bringing with him the full orchestra of nearly seventy performers, and is convinced that the programs to be presented to the public, both chorally and from an orchestral point of view, will be of the highest educational benefit. The subscription lists for these concerts are still open, and subscriptions will continue to be received by the secretary until the opening of the plan for subscribers on Monday, Feb. 6.

HE DIDN'T KNOW

But Citizen Buchanan Had a Bump on His Head.

Chief Grasett yesterday held an investigation as far as he could into the charge laid by James Buchanan against Constable Mullen. Buchanan claimed that the constable struck him with the baton, raising a lump on his head, without provocation. Chief Grasett is willing at any time to listen to complaints of citizens who accuse policemen of unnecessary roughness towards citizens, especially those under the influence of liquor.

Buchanan was not present to press his charge against Mullen, but another citizen told the chief that he witnessed the whole affair. His story is that he saw Buchanan annoying a couple of women on the street. He trailed along behind and saw Buchanan fall, striking his head against a house. The policeman arrested Buchanan but he did not see the officer use his baton. If that had been done he was near enough to see it.

The sergeant on duty when Buchanan was brought in asked him how he received the lump on his head. The reply was: "I don't know."

TORONTO MAN DIES.

Belle Ewart, Jan. 6.—Thomas Ferrier, foreman here for the Belle Ewart Ice Company, died on his way from Toronto to this place on Tuesday. He was picked up insensible on the roadway near Temperanceville, a small place five miles north of Richmond Hill, and one and a quarter miles west of Yonge-street. He died within a few hours and nothing is known as yet as to how the accident happened. He leaves a widow and several children.

No details of the accident have been received at the office of the Belle Ewart Company. Ferrier had charge of the men at the lake, and was just down taking the horses and wagons up for the winter's work.
