ATHLETIC

Lifely to Fall.

New York, Dec. 1.—To judge from all the information available about the charges to be made against George Goulding, Canadian walker, before the local Registration Committee, Goulding will never be declared a professional. George Matthews, chairman of the Registration Committee, said last night that the letter from W. H. Parry, which would be the basis for charges is lacking in detail, and that it is even doubtful if Goulding's name will be mentioned at all.

Other rumors had it that Parry was depending on the help of another man, but that this other man has completely backed away from the case and will not have anything to do in the line of accusing Goulding.

What the A. A. C. officials and almost everybody else would like to know is the identity of the writer of a decoy letter to Goulding some time ago. This letter bore a Brooklyn postmark and the writer represented himself to be an A. U. official and the officer of one of the local clubs. He said he was running off a meet, and wanted to know how much Goulding wanted for expenses and advised the Canadian not to be cheap in his demands.

It was so unattractive an attempt at a "plant" that Goulding saw through it in an instant and immediately sent the letter to a friend of his in New York to look up the man with the "smooth" advice about the liberal expenses. The A. A. C. official would not be found, but the bar writing was said to be familiar.

BASEBALL

Bill Manage Pirates.

Bill Hinchman, formerly of Manayunk, is said to have the inside track for the position of manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates. Honus Wagner is said to have declined the honor and George Gibson is another member of the team who is reported to have a chance of landing the position.

GOING TO WAR.

W. A. O'Hara, formerly a member of the New York and St. Louis National League baseball teams and latterly of the Toronto Internationals, has been granted a commission in the British Royal Naval air service.

International League.

New York, Dec. 2.—Pres. E. G. Barrow has issued a call for the annual meeting of the International League to be held at the Hotel McAlpine here on Dec. 16. The board of directors will meet at twelve o'clock and the league meeting will be at two o'clock.

FOOTBALL

Yale's New Leader.

Yale's first step in organization of her football situation from the present crisis was taken at the annual football banquet when Clinton B. Black, Jr., of New York, was unanimously elected captain for 1916.

The new leader is a guard and his playing in both the Princeton and Harvard games marked him as one of the best recent Yale lineemen.

Ithaca, N. Y., Dec. 2.—The Cornell faculty committee will not permit the acceptance of the challenge of the University of Pittsburgh for a football game between the two institutions to decide the 1915 championship.

GOLF.

Players in the War.

Golf is more than holding its own with other sports with regard to the number of players that have gone to the front. The annual meeting of the association of golf professionals of Great Britain has been declared off for this year because so many of the "pros" are fighting in France. No fewer than sixty professionals are now on the firing line.

This does not take into account the amateurs that flocked to the colors at the first call, and already a score or more champions have been killed in action.

Armand Massey, a Frenchman who won the British open championship at Holyoke in 1907, is an officer in the French army, and Jimmy White, who won the same title at Sandwich in 1904, is with the British army in France.

While Roy, Vardon, Taylor, and Brand have not gone to the front, they have been doing great work for the War Relief Committee by playing exhibition matches all around Great Britain, the proceeds from which have been turned over to the sufferers of the conflict.

Reports from the front indicate that many of the golfing enthusiasts carry the cross with them, even amid the horrors of the battle front. Improper golf courses have been laid out in the rear of the trenches, and the soldiers have played the game with clubs that resemble "shiny sticks," while battered tin cans were used as balls. The abandoned trenches served as bunkers, and as for holes, the bursting shrapnel made only too many of them. The tournaments were subject to frequent postponements when uninvited guests in the shape of German soldiers presented themselves as spectators.

HOCKEY

Shore Has Accepted.

Ottawa, Dec. 2.—Friction that has been in evidence on inside hockey circles between Coach Alf Smith and cover point Hamby Shore came to a head when Shore announced that he had accepted terms by wire from the Patricks and will leave for the coast.

AMERICAN COMMITTED FOR TRIAL IN LONDON FOR TRADING WITH ENEMY

London, Dec. 2.—Edward Weinacht, formerly European manager for the Adams Express Company, and who later assisted in the organization of the Sutherland International Dispatch, with offices in New York and London, was committed for trial today on a charge of "trading with an enemy." Bail of $5,000 was allowed.

CHAPTER 8 OFTHE DIAMOND FROM THE SKY

IN TWO REELS
Interesting developments occur in this installment. Hagar loses her reason after Blair's attack upon her. Ester takes her back to the gypsies. An attorney arrives from England, announcing the earl's death and searching for the heir. What becomes of the diamond? Who is murdered in a Chinese "Hop Joint"? Don't miss this chapter; it's the most interesting yet.

Extraordinary

Beautiful Mae Marsh and Robert Harron in A Three-Part Master-Picture

is not a long picture, but its three reels carry a story full of human interest, of self sacrifice, of love, and of a struggle to do right in the face of great obstacles.

Bobby Harron is the expert locksmith, wrongfully accused and imprisoned for robbing a safe. He escapes from prison. A bit of realism you will enjoy. Later he looks three burglars in a bank vault. The burglars fight among themselves (another extremely exciting scene).

In the end, all turns out well for Mae and Bobby.

This is truly a fascinating and thrilling story with plenty of action and genuine excitement.

Franklin K. Lane says this is one of the best ones he has heard recently. The train was a little more deliberate than usual on this occasion, and the only passenger besides myself was a woman, evidently a stranger on the line. She was becoming very nervous, fidgeting about and every time the conductor or brakeman passed she would ask:

"Aren't we ever going to get to W?"

"At last the conductor grew tired of it and replied rather snappily. 'Please have a little patience, madam. Why, I've been on this train for three years—'

Before he could finish his sentence the woman exclaimed:

"My gracious! What station did you get on at?"

"THE DICTATOR"

By Richard Harding Davis

This Cast Suggests the Story:
JOHN BARRYMORE PLAYS the role of Brooke Tavers, escaping for an imaginary crime and forced into Dictatorship of a troublous republic.

CHARLOTTE IVES PLAYS as Lucy Sheridan, a charming little missionary with whom Tavers falls in love.

RUBY HOFFMAN PLAYS Juanita, a disappointed senorita who has a knife ready for the real Dictator—(look out, John Barrymore).

WALTER CRAYVEN PLAYS the part of General Campos, temporary President of this disrupted republic.

ROBERT BRODERICK PLAYS the agitated character of Col. Bowie—a sort of revolution specialist, the storm-center of it all.

HARRY WEST PLAYS the innocent and subdued Rev. Bostick who gets in an awful mix-up of marriages and sweethearts.

THOMAS McGRATH PLAYS Duffy, the Irishman who lends assistance at the psychological moment.
