Are Trying Hypnotism On The German Nation

Political Leaders Attempt By Assuring Talk to Make People Stick; Still Harping on Peace; Admit Defeats, But Rely on U-Boats and Past Successes

Amsterdam, Sept. 27—Vice-Chancellor] that there were grounds for the fear that Political Leaders Attempt By Assuring Talk ements that are reachby the pronouncements that are reaching our ears from across the ocean "The wildest war fury is at present raging in the United States. The people are intoxicated with the idea that America must bring the blessings of modern liberal kultur to the enslaved peoples of Central Europe, while at the same time they are rejoicing at the many millions of dollars which the war armaments are causing to flow into the pockets of the causing to flow into the pockets of the business men.

Greece and Ireland. "Theory and practice are two different things. The old proverb of the mote in another's eye and the beam in one's own finds constant illustration in the machinations of the Entente. They are machinations of the Entente. They are never tired of condemning our march into Belgium, but they pass over the oppression of Greece, the interference with that country's internal affairs and the enforced abdication of its king as if they were matters of course. They assert that they are fighting to protect oppressed nations, but the century-old sorrows and the justifiable grievances of Ireland nowhere find a hearing, not even in America, where the people are acquainted where find a hearing, not even in America, where the people are acquainted with them through the numerous Irish immigrants. The British government, which is especially fond of talking right, and justice, recently found it compatible with those principles to recognize the conglomerate rabble of Czecho-Slovaks as a belligerent power.

"How will the German people have to meet that? Will it, forsooth, beg for mercy in fear and trembling? No, gentlemen, remembering its great past and its still greater mission in the future it will stand erect and not cringe or grovel.

"The situation is serious, but it gives us no ground for deep depression. The iron wall of the western front is not broken, and the U-boat is slowly but surely fulfilling its task of diminishing tonnage, thus above all increasingly mentonnage, thus above all increasingly men-acing and restricting reinforcements of en and material from the United

"The hour will come, because it must come, when our enemies will see reason and be ready to make an end of the war before half the world is converted into a heap of ruins and the flower of its manly strength lies dead on the battlefield." Must Stand Together.

Count von Hertling said it was the Count von Herting said it was the business of the Germans to stand together, cool, confident, united and resolute, with their one aim the protection of the Fatherland, its independence and its freedom of movement. There was no antagonism, he declared, between the government and the people. The former only desired to work for and with the nation. Alluding to the differences of opinion on political matters, the chancellor said:

confront us with new domestic prob-lems. I will not speak of these now, but as I know that the prevailing discon-tent is not influenced alone by the suf-ferings and worries of war-time, but al-
