CURLING

Amherst and New Glasgow Winners
Amherst curlers, led by Skips R. C. Fuller, N. C. Rogers, Carter and H. M. Rogers carried off the D. C. Fraser trophy in the Halifax bonspiel, with the Mayflowers (Halifax) in second place.

The Dunlap-Cooke trophy was won by New Glasgow, Skips W. H. Torrey, Don Fraser, J. R. McDonald and A. Fraser, with Sydney in second place. The bonspiel will finish today.

SKATING

Ottawa, Feb. 13—The first annual figure skating championship meet under the auspices of the Canadian Amateur Skating Association took place at the Arena today.

Competitors were here from Toronto and Montreal. The final stages were contested tonight in the presence of the Duke of Connaught, who afterwards officiated at the presentation of prizes. Princess Patricia also attended. The championships proved very successful.

WRESTLING

Canadian Won.
Vancouver, B. C., Feb. 13—George Walker, Canadian middleweight wrestler, defeated Sam Chapman of London, England, in straight falls last night, winning both falls with a toe hold, the first in thirty-one minutes and fifteen seconds, and the second in thirty-eight minutes and forty seconds.

Frank Harrington, the Lynn pitcher, well known in this city, is being sought by the Federal League. He has been sent a contract by the Lynn club, but it has not yet been returned.

AQUATIC

Oarsman Dead
Newark, N. J., Feb. 13—Franklin Phillips, who established a nation-wide reputation as a mechanical, steam and hydraulic engineer, is dead of pneumonia.

As stroke of the famous Triton boat club six-oared crew some years ago, Mr. Phillips made a reputation as an expert oarsman.

American Swimmers at Honolulu
San Francisco, Cal., Feb. 13—A team of American swimmers will compete for honors in the grand mid-Pacific aquatic carnival in Honolulu on February 20 and 21. The team will be composed of William McWood of the Olympic club, Scott, Leary, and Walter Pomroy, also of the Olympic club, a one-legged marvel, Lincoln Johnson, a San Francisco Y. M. C. A. star, Bob Small, unattached, and Dorothy Decker, fourteen years old, who aspires to startle the swimming world.

Coach Nickalls Arrives.
New York, Feb. 14—Guy Nickalls, Oxford oarsman, who for several years stroked his crew to victory in the Oxford and Cambridge boat races, arrived here from England on the S. S. Oceanic last night. He comes as a coach of the Yale Varsity crew, and will go at once to New Haven, where he will start working on the crew in the gymnasium and tank. He will remain until the end of the contest between Yale and Harvard at New London.

RING

Ritchie and Murphy.
San Francisco, Cal., Feb. 14—Willie Ritchie, lightweight champion, and Harlan Tommy Murphy will fight twenty rounds here on the night of Friday, April 17. This decision was reached last night, after a conference between Ritchie and a prize fight promoter. The champion has reserved the right to engage in one ten round contest in the meantime.

Glamby Wins Decision.

Los Angeles, Feb. 13—Jimmy Glamby, a Hammond, Ind., middleweight, was given the decision over Sailor Petrosky of San Francisco at the conclusion of their twenty round bout in Vernon yesterday.

Two Old Times.

Bob Fitzsimmons will not be allowed to box in Philadelphia with any one who is apt to hurt him. The authorities, will, however, permit him to box Peter Maber, who even when at his best could not do him any harm.

Gibbons Would Meet Gunboat.
Tom Gibbons is getting so heavy that he will soon launch himself as a white hope. He wants a crack at Gunboat Smith, and as soon as he figures the time ripe for such a plunge he will challenge Jim Buckley's big hope.

A New Way.
Tacoma, Wash., Feb. 13—In a boxing contest here each of the judges held in his hand a machine to register the number of blows struck. At the end of the contest the boxer who scored the greatest number of blows was given the decision. It is said this is the first time in the history of boxing that a device of this kind has been used in determining the winner in limited round matches.

BLACK BROTHERS
A most entertaining duo of banjoists and fiddlers. They have played with untiring success in our own theatre, and throughout the South circuit. Their variety of numbers offer a very pleasing offering, and with classic and popular offerings the best of good music has been called by them for your entertainment.

"The Stolen Legacy"
2 Reels Mon. and Tues.
A powerful story in two reels, splendidly put on by a talented company of foreign players. By unfair means the villain secures possession of a Indian fortune, becomes respected and influential and lives in great luxury with his charming wife. The daughter of his victim, to whom the fortune rightly belongs, is raised by orphans. This girl is selected by the villain as his wife to ruin the rich man's house. Climax falls upon climax as this strenuous story is unfolded on the screen.

"The Lion and the Mouse"
Great Play Tues., Wed., Thur.
Thousands of St. John people are familiar with this powerful story, and even more powerful play. We are told by the "Lion and the Mouse" and "Morton Picture World" also quote a number of authorities that the picture "Lion and the Mouse" is a great work in every respect, and it is going to make either the story or the stage presentation because it gives rapidly alternating views of the various characters in the story, conveying to the viewer a vivid impression of the great series of incidents, which complete the story.

"The Paleface Brave"
Next Friday and Saturday
This is a two reel keen drama of the frontier days when the early settlers were so much harassed by hostile Indians. The episode is full of interest with action and excitement.
