THIRTIETH ANNIVERSARY.
Mr. and Mrs. William Tait were given a pleasant surprise yesterday evening when a number of friends, called upon them at their home in St. James street, where the members of Remouth street church and some other friends, called upon them to congratulate them upon the thirtieth anniversary of their wedding. During the evening Hon. Robert Murray, president of the church, presented them with a handsome electric lamp on behalf of those assembled, and hearty congratulations were extended by Rev. W. W. Brewer, J. E. Wilson, M. P. P., James Moyle, and George Breen, in brief and interesting addresses. Songs and choruses were sung, refreshments served, and a happy time was spent.

IN THE COURTS.
The case of Sarah B. Watson vs. Andrew Ferguson, and John Ferguson and wife was before Mr. Justice Macdonald in chambers this morning. This is a case of alleged trespass arising in Hants county. The plaintiff charges Andrew Ferguson with breaking and entering her premises. Andrew Ferguson contends that as agent of Mr. Graham, the tenant in common, he went in and was justified, or in the alternative, acting for the assignee of mortgage, he took charge of a vacant possession and put in tenants. The main point is whether or not a deed given by a man who has no title to property, and subsequently acquires a title, is good and the party is estopped from showing that he had no title at the time of transfer. The case is being continued this afternoon.

W. D. Carter, of Harcourt, is for the plaintiff, Dr. W. B. Carter, for Andrew Ferguson, and M. G. Teed, K.C., for John Ferguson.

DIED IN ONTARIO.
Death came suddenly to Mrs. James Buchanan at her home in Leffay, Ontario, on Christmas Day. She was about fifty-four years of age and was enjoying perfect health up to the time of her death. On Christmas morning she was taken suddenly ill with heart trouble and died within an hour. Mrs. Buchanan was a woman of sterling character and was highly respected by the residents of Leffay. Besides her husband, she is survived by ten children, seven of whom were at home to spend Christmas. She is an aunt of Conductor James Buchanan of the I. C. R. A day or so before Christmas he sent a wire to her wishing her and her family the compliments of the season, and naturally was shocked when he received word on Christmas day of her sudden death. Several other relatives reside in Nova Scotia. Mrs. Buchanan had many friends in this section of the country who will learn with regret of her sudden death.

TAKES OVER FATHER MORRIS' MEDICINE COMPANY BUSINESS.

A Chatham, N. B., despatch says that the S. C. U. of Leveson, N. Y., will take over the manufacture and exploitation of the products of the Father Morris Medicine Company, and develop them along with their own line of medicines. The Wells Company has been doing business in Canada and recently paid $60,000 for a Montreal property in which they purpose to manufacture goods for the Canadian market. The two businesses will be confined under the one management.

VENDOME HOTEL BUILDING SOLD

J. F. Gleeson Buys Prince William Street Property for a St. John Syndicate

The Vendome Hotel on the corner of Prince William and Duke streets has been purchased from Michael Harney by J. F. Gleeson for a local syndicate. The building is of brick, is three stories in height. It has a frontage of about twenty-five feet on Prince William street and runs back along Duke street to the full length of the lot. With the change in the location of the post office and the proposed purchase of the Troop building by the Board of Trade this property is looked upon as a desirable one.

The new owners will take possession immediately, but Mr. Harney will remain in the building for a short time. The purchasers have not yet definitely decided to what use they will put the building, but plans for converting it into an up-to-date office building or into a modern apartment house are talked of.

MISS GILLIS, AS BRIDE, GOES TO THE NORTHWEST

Wedding in Trinity This Afternoon, Reginald F. Wright The Groom

A wedding of much interest took place at four o'clock this afternoon in Trinity church, when Miss Kathleen Gillis, youngest daughter of Mrs. Gillis and the late John R. Gillis, became the bride of Reginald Francis Wright, of Saskatoon, Sask. Mr. Wright is a son of the late Hugh S. Wright, president of the Board of the North American Life Insurance Co. here. He was for some years connected with the Canada Permanent Mortgage Company in this city before going west. He is now inspector for the Trust & Loan Company with headquarters in Saskatoon.

The ceremony was performed by His Lordship Bishop Richardson, assisted by the rector, Rev. J. A. Armstrong. The choir, under the direction of J. S. Ford assisted with the musical portion of the service. The church was prettily decorated in green and white for the happy occasion.

The bride, who was given away by her father, Miss Gillis, wore a beautiful gown of embroidered Irish poplin, with veil and orange blossoms, and carried a large bouquet of bridal roses. It is of interest that her gown and veil were worn by her mother when she was married.

Miss Kathleen, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and was gowned in pale blue and carried a bouquet of red carnations. Miss Alice Brown and Miss McAvity, daughters of Lieutenant-Colonel J. L. McAvity, dressed in white and carried bouquets of white carnations, were flower girls. E. M. Church was groomsmen, and the ushers were John W. Davidson and Lawrence J. Allen.

After the ceremony a reception for the immediate relatives was at the residence of the bride's mother, 10 Union street, and Mr. and Mrs. Wright will leave on the Montreal express for their future home. Some of the ladies in the United States on the way. In travelling, the bride will wear a blue cloth suit with a white waist.

Both of the young people are popular with large circles of friends, from whom they received a very handsome array of wedding presents.

LITTLE CRIPPLED GIRL MAY BE SENT TO MUNICIPAL HOME

A case that is interesting the Alms House commissioners at the present time is that of James Ritchie, an Italian resident of this city, and his little crippled child. It appears that several months ago Ritchie's wife died, leaving five children, one of whom was a cripple. Ritchie not having anyone to look after them, sent them away to his brother-in-law's home at Queenston, N. B.

Not long ago he sent for three of his children, and they were sent to him, including the little crippled girl. He kept two, but sent the little girl back. The brother-in-law refused the child, and she has since been living with people on the west side. The authorities interested themselves in the case, and wish to have the child sent to the alms house. Those interested were in the police court this morning and it is wished to be likely that the little girl will be sent to the home at Crouville.

TODAY'S POLICE COURT

No less than fourteen prisoners were arraigned in the police court this morning. Nine of them were taken into custody yesterday and last night. James Holt, arrested yesterday afternoon on charge of being drunk and profane in Charlotte street was fined $4 or ten days in jail on the first charge and $8 or two months in jail for the profanity. Eight others were charged with drunkenness. Five were fined $8 or two months in jail, two were remanded and one was sent to jail for three months under the option of a fine.

Norman McLeod, John Sullivan, Cornelius Garnet and Charles Harrington, arrested on charge of creating a disturbance in Sydney street on New Year's Eve were again brought before the court and were further remanded until tomorrow morning at half past nine o'clock. Garnet and McLeod were again allowed to go on deposit until tomorrow.

Sullivan and Harrington were sent into the city without a home, and were charged with fighting in the street some time ago. Sullivan it was said, today, was sentenced to a term in Dorchester by Judge Forbes on the charge of stealing a quantity of copper and brass some months ago, but he was allowed to go on suspended sentence. This matter may be brought before the court later.

Louis Dritz, reported for conducting a junk business in the city without a license was told to make some arrangements at City Hall and report to the court later.

Henry Brown reported for removing from the beach of the lot of Clarence street did not appear and the case was set down for tomorrow morning.

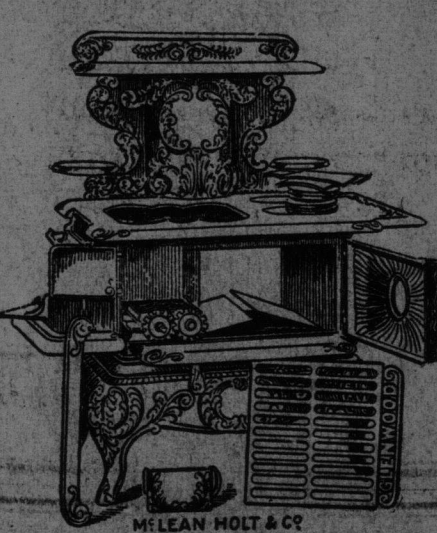

The case about an overcoat, previously reported was adjourned until Friday morning after Robert Peck had given evidence.

More Boys Have New Playthings Than Have New Overcoats

We would strongly urge all parents who have put off overcoat buying until after Christmas to give this important matter their attention now.

Here you can buy suit or overcoat or reefer at any price you please—the assortment is great.

And you get more value at whatever price you pay.

Obviously, this advertisement is for the purpose of selling Oak Hall overcoats, but we would rather you bought elsewhere than have the boy go overcoatless much longer.
