the soprano and baritone duet by Miss Waterbury and Mr. Gillis.

Bats are great eaters of mosquitoes.

The soprano numbers of both Miss Waterbury and Miss Vida Waterbury were rendered with delightful effect, while the readings given by Miss Mabel Scully were most entertaining and given with a talented expression. Not the least pleasing of the entire program were the violin solos by Miss Ada Williams, who wielded the bow with much charm of effect. The piano selections of Dr. O. Comeau were also expressive and conveyed to the unseen audience that he was an accomplished artist.

The part taken by the leader, J. Harold Gillis, was one that captivated listeners, his rich baritone voice sending out over the air several pleasing numbers. Another number on the program that was most enjoyable was

ORPHANAGE FAIR NOTES

This year's Orphanage Fair which is to open in the Saint Andrews rink on Sept. 23rd. If all the present plans mature, will be by far the biggest and best effort ever put forth by the fair committee.

11,430 Circulars were mailed last week to people living outside of the city. While it is too early yet to judge the outcome, taken as a whole, the cash donations, sale of tickets, volunteers to assist, reports of community efforts, etc., the general result for the first week is encouraging. The committee look for better things during the next week or two.

VIMY Lodge, L. O. B. A. of North Devon, N. B. were the first outside organization to respond. They are donating a quilt for the Fair, and have appointed a live committee to solicit subscriptions and sell Hope Chest, and Door Tickets. WHO WILL BE THE NEXT? We need lodges, societies, and individual workers in every part of the Province.

One good lady from Charlottetown, N. B. sent her cheque for $20.00, as her donation, taking in return ten books of tickets on the Hope Chest, and five on the Car. Many others are sending smaller amounts.

One King Street Merchant offers to go over his stock and furnish the Committee with a lot of slow selling, but good quality merchandise all of which can be used to good advantage during the Fair. His offer came unsolicited, the Committee would be pleased to hear from others. He is a friend of the Orphans, how about you?

THE FAIR COMMITTEE ARE ANXIOUS TO SECURE ENOUGH MONEY IN CASH DONATIONS DURING THE COMING WEEK TO SAVE THE ORPHANAGE BOARD FROM GOING TO THE BANK FOR A FURTHER OVERDRAFT. IT IS ALREADY $27,000 AND SHOULD NOT BE ALLOWED TO GET BEYOND THAT AND WHAT IS FURTHER WILL NOT IF YOU WILL ACT PROMPTLY IN THE MATTER. YOU ARE GOING TO ASSIST, WHY NOT NOW? A FRIEND IN NEED IS A FRIEND IN DEED.

The Fair Committee also desire to arrange a good live "Vote"
