THE OXYGENATED BITTERS. This remery is just what it purports to be, — a "rema-fer Dyapopan." Though containing no alcohol, get a con-relate its virtues in any climate. It is highly commented in a temporaful in half a lumbler of senter constituting does. Among all the remettes ever discovered for these prevailing and obstinate complaints, there is none which ear remark each great and permanent cause, or whose can produce to many and preceptionable configurate to the recipients of its hearits. A single done after mitigated the discover, and a germanical cure speedily follows.

STODDARD, N. H., Sept. 20, 15 BTODDAED, N. H., Sept. 28, 129.

Meoers. SETH W. FOWLE & CO., — Gents: I wee for many years, a great Pifferer from Dyrappend of WATEBEASH, and tried aimost everything within my reach, but to no benedit, simil I was induced by the fea chamendation of any physicienty Dr. Hinchelson, to make use of the OXYGENATED PITTERS. The first boutle use of the OXYGENATED PITTERS. The first boutle produced but a silent alteration in the discusse, and had it not been for the urgent request of my physician, about the nave discontinued their use; thinking these to be of no avail, but his condisence inspired me to persover, and after using to the extent of laiff a deep bottles. I had entirely regained my health, I hope of drengtic persons will be induced to give those a few trial, being confident that this founcing in the mean produced. Yours,
