SLOW DEATH IN SUBMARINE

SOME OF MEN LIVED FOR 2 DAYS IN SUNKEN BOAT

The Pluviose Towed to Calais Where Bodies Are Removed

From Wreck

(Times Leased Wire.)

Calais, June 11.-The men of the sunken French submarine Pluviose who were in the inner compartment of DUKE OF CONNAUGHT'S the little craft when it was sunk by the Ville De Calais, May 26th, lived a day after the collision and slowly strangled to death. The men in the open, were either mangled so that they died instantly or drowned.

This report was made by the surgeons who examined the bodies of the officers and crew of the submarine.

While the divers from the French warships were working on the sunken craft to raise it, the men in the inner ompartments amidships were slowly dying. The investigation proves the truth of the report that tappings by the imprisoned men on the sides of the submarine were heard.

The belief was expressed here that if the submarine had been raised at once half the crew of 27 men would
