

WE WILL RETURN LIBERALS

TION OF STEWART AND BELCOURT CERTAIN

Conservative Candidates in Que-Disqualified—Great Interest in New Brunswick Nominations.

Oct. 28.—Three Liberals so far have been practically returned by vote. One is in Berthier, Quebec, where the Conservative candidate, is postmaster, and has signed. He cannot take his seat he does run. Chapter 11, section section A of the revised statutes of 1886, reads as follows: "No receiving or holding any office, position or employment, permanent or temporary, in the service of the government of Canada, or the government of any province, or the government of any of the territories or of the government of Canada, or any salary, fee, wages, allowance, or profit of any kind is attachable to a member of either House of Commons or shall sit or serve." Maurice Shaver, the Conservative candidate in Russell county, is same position. He is postmaster in Indian, and is not qualified to sit in the service of the government. The Citizen, the opposition says today editorially: "Birkett return in the lead." They have N. Champagne, overboard. Ottawa will return two Liberals, N. A. Bel-and R. Stewart.

CLOSING MEETINGS OF THE CAMPAIGN

LIBERAL RALLY AT OAKLANDS TO-NIGHT

Smoker Will Be Held at Esquimalt—Enthusiastic Meetings in Ralph Smith's Interests.

(From Monday's Daily)
The political campaign is drawing to a close. On Thursday the voting takes place, and the electorate must then decide who shall be the representative in the next parliament.
The returning officer, Hinkson Siddall, is having the polling place fitted up for Thursday. The polling will take place in the old Methodist church, directly opposite the market place. The building is well adapted for voting purposes. It has been laid off into apartments arranged alphabetically according to the names on the voters' list. In this way all confusion and inconvenience should be avoided.
The polls will open at 9 o'clock in the forenoon, and close at 5 o'clock in the evening.
This evening there will be a rally in the Oakland's fire hall in the interests of Geo. Riley, the Liberal candidate in the city. The meeting will begin at 8 o'clock.
It will be addressed by Mr. Riley, Chas.
A. Legrin and Dr. Lewis Hall. All are expected to be present.
At Esquimalt this evening the Young Liberal Club of Victoria will hold a smoker. This is given at the request of many in Esquimalt district. In addition to short speeches there will also be songs and other entertainment provided. The smoker will be held in the Masonic hall.
Wednesday evening there will be a smoker in the A. O. U. W. hall in the city under the auspices of the Young Liberal Club. This will bring to a fitting close the present campaign.
At West Sooke on Saturday afternoon a very successful meeting was held in the interests of Ralph Smith. Mr.
Smith attended it himself, and hence was unable to speak in the city in the evening.
So enthusiastic were the residents of the district that a good number walked all the way from Otter Point to be present.
Stirring addresses were delivered by Mr. Smith, W. W. B. McInnes, M. P. P., B. J. Perry and John Jardine. Before the meeting closed resolutions were passed expressing confidence in Mr.
Smith and Sir Wilfrid Laurier. Before the meeting broke up those present resolved themselves into a committee to do what they could to insure the election of Mr. Smith.
Throughout the districts about the city Mr. Smith in his campaign has had the most pronounced success. It is acknowledged that the meetings have been more largely attended and more enthusiastic than any ever held in the districts. They have been decidedly in favor of Mr.
Smith, so that his election seems to be insured.
Ralph Smith has gone to the northern part of his constituency to close the campaign.
Mr. Riley's committee at the close of the campaign, after having thoroughly canvassed the city in his interests, are satisfied that he will have a splendid majority.
Not only is the prospect bright in Victoria, but Mr. Smith will assuredly carry the Nanaimo district. The election in Comox-Atlin, which follows later, will beyond a doubt go in favor of Wm.
Sloan, so that Vancouver Island will be in the next House of Commons be represented entirely by Liberals.
From the Mainland comes similar encouragement, and it will be a surprise to many if the province of British Columbia does not return at the election the entire Liberal slate.
The following interview with Dr. Hanington, of this city, which appeared in the Winnipeg Free Press will be of interest to Victorians:
"Our disposition on the coast seems to be to keep in touch with the existing government. Our interests are hardly identical with those of the balance of the Dominion, and our affairs are best looked after by representatives who are in sympathy with the government. The idea that Sir Wilfrid will be sustained seems reasonable, and you can judge that this will have considerable influence on the coast. The Grand Trunk Pacific lines is also very popular and may be indeed described as a winner. It was a master stroke, and can hardly be beaten.

"I am just returning from Montreal and preparations were being made at the time for a big reception for Sir Wilfrid.
When the Premier comes to the coast we will give him the town. Whatever difference of opinion there may be about politics and issues in Canada, there are no two opinions about Sir Wilfrid Laurier.
He has the good-will and regard of the Canadian people from coast to coast, and he is a man of whom all Canadians may well be proud."

CUSTOMS REVENUE LARGEST ON RECORD

MORE THAN $3,600,000 FOR MONTH OF OCTOBER

Hon. A. G. Blair's Resignation as Chairman of Railway Commission Has Been Accepted.

Ottawa, Oct. 31.—Hon. A. G. Blair was in his office at the railway commission headquarters this forenoon packing up his personal papers and books. His resignation has been accepted by the government, and Mr. Blair stated to-day that he felt greatly relieved in getting out of harm's way so to get a rest. He will pay a visit to St. Louis exposition, and will afterwards take a trip to Europe. Mr.
Blair has certainly worked hard to get the commission in good running order, and he has succeeded. He regards the commission as his own creation, and although severing himself from it will always continue to follow its work with a good deal of interest. Before setting out to business Mr. Blair will enjoy a well earned vacation.

Customs Revenue.
The customs revenue for the Dominion for the month of October was $3,656,128.
This is the largest in any one month in the history of the country. It is $189,007 over the same month last year. In October, 1903, the revenue was $3,467, 800. The receipts this month are two and a quarter times greater.

New Lift Lock.
Tenders are being asked for a lift lock at Kirkfield on the Trent Valley canal.
It will be 55 feet, or ten feet less than the Peterboro locks. The cost will be about $800,000.

New Militia Act.
Saturday's Canada Gazette contained a proclamation bringing into force the new Canadian Militia Act on November 1st.

LADYSMITH NOTES.
Socialists Held Meeting on Saturday—Shooting Accident at Duncan's.

Ladysmith, Oct. 31.—Wm. Fenton and J. H. Hawthornthwaite, M.P.P., showed up suddenly in Ladysmith on Saturday afternoon from the islands and a meeting was called for the evening at the opera house. It was stily attended and very little enthusiasm was shown. G. R. Wilson briefly maintained that the lumber troubles of the prairies were due not so much to railway freights as to the giving of timber lands to capitalists instead of working them for the benefit of the people. Mr. Fenton devoted most of his time to an attack of Mr. Smith. Mr. Hawthornthwaite expressed the greatest anxiety to meet Mr. Smith on the platform, and said he had made ineffectual efforts to meet that gentleman face to face. After he had finished his remarks John Johnson asked why Mr. Hawthornthwaite had voted against the ballot boxes going back to Fernie at the time of the contested election. To this Mr. Hawthornthwaite said he did not care whether or the ballot boxes went to Fernie or Halifax, it was a matter of indifference to him. Mr. Johnson repeated his assertion and furthermore stated that Mr.
Hawthornthwaite had promised him to

CONTRASTS IN NATIONAL PROGRESS ILLUSTRATED

vote for the ballot boxes going back to Fernie, but had not kept his word.
Raymond Richardson, of Duncan, while out shooting yesterday, was badly injured in the side of the face by the accidental discharge of a gun and was taken to the Chemainus hospital.
Jim Walker's team ran away with him a short distance below town yesterday afternoon. Walker was thrown out and so severely hurt that he was taken to Nanaimo on the evening train. Several ribs were broken and the man's condition is very serious.

THOUSANDS GREETED CANADA'S PREMIER

ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTION AT THREE RIVERS

Was in Excellent Form and His Defence of Administration Was Loudly Cheered.

Montreal, Oct. 31.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier was given a splendid reception at Three Rivers, Que., on Saturday. He arrived in the evening from Montreal, and was met at the station by a crowd that blocked all the streets in the vicinity. A monster procession was formed, and Sir Wilfrid Laurier, driving in a four-horse carriage, was escorted to the skating rink, the most spacious hall in the city.
Before 8 o'clock every part of the rink from which the speaker could be seen or heard was occupied, and five to six thousand were packed in the body of the rink as close as they could stand. About one hundred citizens were on the platform, among them some of the local clergy.
The Premier received a great ovation, which was again and again renewed before he could proceed. He was in good form, and spoke with vigor for 45 minutes, notwithstanding that the hall was not warmed. He kept the vast audience in excellent spirits, and his speech was punctuated by great applause.

He briefly reviewed the Conservative policy, and what the government has done and what it has left undone, was perfectly legitimate and essentially true; but mere fault-finding goes a very little way in winning elections. The fault that Mr. Borden affected to find with the government was, that, being largely composed of free traders, it did not immediately give the country free trade "as it is in Britain," so soon as it came into power. The fact is, however, that no Conservative, and there are none Conservatives, ever expected anything of the kind. Mr. Gladstone told Professor Thorold Rogers, many years ago, that he never had but one objection to the repeal of the Corn Law, during the early period of his connection with Peel's government, and that was, the fear he entertained as to the consequences which would ensue to an interest that was the centre of English public life. The economist adds to this that statesmen may well be excused from venturing up on economical changes of a vast and extended character, even though the proprietors of the change may be proved to demonstration for a period of change, however beneficent it may be in the end.

The Dominion revenue for the month of October was two and a quarter times greater than the revenue for the same month in 1896, the last year of Tory rule. The Conservative leaders are not yet fit to be trusted with the custody of so much money. A new generation must arise before the party can have a fighting chance of victory.

Blair and Tarte, whose alleged rascalities and disloyalty to British connection filled the Tory mind with horror and dismay only a short time ago, are now the oracles of the party. Their words are hung upon as the beginning and end of wisdom.

Mr. George Cowan will to-night advocate rebellion as a means of relief from the terms of union entered into on behalf of British Columbia by a Conservative government at Victoria with a Conservative government at Ottawa.

played is less than the like ratio for manufacturers." How much less it is not possible to say, but if the farmers' labor were charged at its fair value, it would probably leave very little, indeed, for interest on his investment.
If then, Canadian manufacturers are making bigger money than their brethren of the agricultural class, how utterly selfish and unjustifiable is the demand for higher protection against foreign manufacturers, when the result cannot but be to raise the price of things the farmer must have? If the manufacturers of revenue to the state, who are
growing rich, sympathy might go out to the "poor fellows." But such is not the case, even the case of the woollen manufacturers, who owe their reverses to over-capitalization and lack of improvements rather than to the tariff. If there is one class above all others that should be grateful for the good times, it is the men who go to make up the membership of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association. Mr. Borden's policy, as announced by himself in our city, is, therefore, against the interests of nine out of ten of the voters, and the welfare of the country will be best served by giving the Laurier administration another lease of power.

The Laurier government is receiving no stronger nor abler support from any newspaper than it is from the Montreal Witness.

A POPULIST-TORY ORATOR.

Mr. George H. Cowan, lawyer, etc., of Vancouver, is to be given an opportunity to say his little piece this evening. The author of the charming essay on "Provincial Rights," or "Better Terms," has been bursting for many days with the desire to declaim it for the enlightenment of the electorate of Victoria. He had anticipated several meetings, but his friend Sir Hibbert, or some other orator, always nursed his part or talked until bedtime, and so poor George had to put off his deliverance until a more convenient season.

There is no doubt that the oration of the eloquent pleader from Vancouver is an interesting one. It has been proved in several places already and has found favor in the ears of those who heard it.
On that account it will be understood that the speech is easy, or whatever one may choose to term it, is so hastily constructed, loose-jointed, ill-considered impromptu affair. "Not by means." It has been in course of evolution for several months in anticipation of the distinguished patron of the author being capable of implementing his promise and seeing for Mr. Cowan the Conservative nomination in Vancouver.

But the old story of the best laid scheme of mice and men ranging apace was repeated. Sir Hibbert seems to be without honor in the place where he is best known. The Conservatives of Vancouver would recognize no political boss.
Perhaps they objected to the constituency being made a convenience even for a member of the distinguished Tupper family. They became imbued with the idea that there was an understanding between the patron and patronized that in the event of victory for Mr. Borden the seat was to be delivered over to Sir Hibbert as a cabinet representative of British Columbia. This arrangement predicted two most improbable events: A Conservative victory not only in Vancouver, but in the whole of the Dominion. It is not likely the Conservatives of Vancouver at several meetings over, they simply objected to the principle of any man controlling the constituency for his own selfish, ambitious purposes.

Thus were the ambitions of Mr. Cowan blasted while they were yet in the "tender-shoot" stage. He had no misgivings as to the ability of his patron to carry out his portion of the programme. In infantile faith, as he says in his address, Mr. Cowan spent hundreds of dollars of his own money and wasted thousands of dollars' worth of valuable time in preparing a document that would convince the people of Vancouver that he was worthy of his confidence—that he was the man who, ought to represent them. The fact that Sir Hibbert Tupper has quarrelled with his party friends in Vancouver and is attacking in true Tupperian style all Conservatives who proclaim their belief that the best interests of the province will be served by electing Mr. Macpherson constitutes no reason why the expensive piece of Mr.
Cowan should be taken as delivered.
Those who have not already had the privilege of reading it may have the pleasure of hearing it to-night,—we trust in its original form—if they go to A.O.
U.W. hall.

We say we hope there will be no mutilation. But we need scarcely have said that, because Mr. Cowan, moved in Vancouver by the presence of ladies, gave expression to the following eloquent, cryptic sentence: "They (the ladies) have always taught us that falsehood will stand for falsehood, and calumny will be a breach of the commandment, whether it is committed in politics or in the concerns of private life; that neither in the political nor the private concerns of life can man ever withdraw himself from the perpetual obligations of conscience and of duty."

Starting out from such lofty heights, behold this noble young politician at once tumble down into the depths of misrepresentation occupied by his distinguished patron, Sir Hibbert Tupper. He says that the ratio of the net products of agriculture reckoned on the capital employed is less than the like ratio for manufacturers." How much less it is
deed, for interest on his investment.
If then, Canadian manufacturers are
making bigger money than their brethren
of the agricultural class, how utterly sel-
higher protection against foreign man-
be to raise the price of things the farmer
must have? If the manufacturers
is the men who go to make up the mem-
other lease of power.

trations to grant British Columbia her rights, and that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had declared the province had no special case and that we might make the matter of better terms a question of public discretion, if we liked. Now the above is not the language of a Laurier, it is the language of a Tupper story. "Our able young Premier" extracted no such assertion from Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The Times has never objected to the Dominion considering the case of British Columbia.
"Mr. Cowan will say we have been deprived of our rights. If that be the case why, took away our rights? A Tory government in negotiation with a Tory government adopted the terms of union.
The present Dominion government has been in power for eight years. Has it not fulfilled the conditions of the terms of the letter? What rights have we been deprived of by the present Liberal government? Has Mr. Borden ever said that if he were in power he would amend the terms of union? He has said that he would hold an inquiry, which is as far as he has of the party leaders has gone or has any right to go. Again we ask, if there has been a "shameful betrayal and surrender of the rights and reverses of the province," who is to blame? Mr. Cowan will complain of the excessive taxation of the people of British Columbia by this injunition gift government. What does he propose to do to relieve us? The present government has not only greatly reduced general taxation; under the British preference the burden upon the consumers of this province has been cut down by nearly one million dollars. The Tupper-Cowan prescription is to abolish the British preference and give the Eastern manufacturers who supply us "adequate protection" to enable them to extort higher prices for their goods. In a word, they would remove at once the cause of Canada's prosperity. They would strangle industry in the coils of a New National Policy."

We suppose when Mr. Cowan comes to the part of his speech relating to fish traps he will not be so wrapped up in his subject that he will forget to take a discreet hop, skip and jump. The Conservative party has a different policy for every province of the Dominion, a distinct policy for every section of every province of the Dominion. Mr. Cowan has undertaken to defend that policy. The speech he made in Vancouver could not therefore be delivered exactly as it was uttered in Vancouver.

A characteristic letter from Sir Hibbert Tupper is published in the Colonist this morning. The communication is characteristically untruthful. It is also characteristically abusive. The author is evidently troubled about the seasonal indemnity business, which is something that is altogether unexpected. Sir Hibbert, in order to minimize the disgrace of his office, says that Ralph Smith stated during his campaign that he (Mr. Smith) drew his full pay and refunded the difference for absence through ill health. Mr.
Smith said nothing of the kind. He did not draw his full pay. Sir Hibbert desires the public to infer that he also refunded the amount he was "owed." Will he say directly that he "returned" the amount of the indemnity to which he was not entitled, or that he refunded any of it?

Will Mr. George Cowan tell us whether he has an assurance from his leader that if successful he will restore the duty on lumber that was taken off by the Conservative government in 1894?

HE CAPTURED CANADA'S HEART.

By John Trotter.
(Written for General Election, 1904.)
'Twas the month of roses a fair lovely June, When nature's heartstrings were well in tune,
And earth's richest treasures revealed to sight
Victims of love, beauty, grace and delight; When the old birds renewed the songs they'd sung,
In sweeter, clearer tones they taught their young,
When the well formed fruit on shrub and tree Bowed each branch in wealth and luxury;
When the sun with his brightest and warmest rays
Left its lingering light at its longest days, And the gentle breezes were hushed and still,
Waiving the song of the whiff-poor-will;
When Miss Canada stood 'neath maple bowers Mid the balmy fragrance of sweetest flowers,
Waiting the result of a long hard fight,
And the speedy return of her own true Knight.
Long had she waited for him alone,
Would he come to claim her as his own?
Then she thought of her Guardians so proud and cold, Did they care for her or seek her gold?
True, they were kind, her love they sought,
And many devoted schemes they wrought;
But now her heart beat strong and free For the one she loved and liberty.
And like one who sees a ship far off, Now on the wave and now in the trough, She strained her eyes to their utmost sight
And saw him scale the mountain's height.
Though blest with a love he did not know, She met him where roses and maples grow, Then knelt, his words like the rippling tide.

The Knight victorious conquering cried:
"Miss Canada, I come at last;
I break the chains that hold thee fast;
I sought for thee, I've kept my vow,
And if thou shouldst refuse me now, Like a strutting rooster on shrub and tree 'Twill blight the fruit that soon shall be."
"Sir Knight," Miss Canada replied,
"May God forever be thy guide.
Go tell it abroad in every land I give to thee my heart and hand."
Then, together with a merry laugh, He placed a rose in her braided wreath.

Where Men Get Hurt
There you find POND'S EXTRACT—the old family doctor—relieving the pain, settling the hurt. For cuts, burns, sprains, bruises—whatever happens, Pond's Extract is a certain cure, a reliable "first-aid." 60 years of relief work prove its worth. Imitations are weak, wasteful, useless. Pond's Extract is pure, powerful, practical.
Solely in sealed bottles under wrapper.
