HOLLAND FEARS KAISER'S GRASP

Emperor Watching Chance to Annex
Country—Dutch Likely to Resist.

BERLIN, July 29.—Pier that the Kaiser might try to annex Holland in the event of the death of Queen Wilhelmina may lead to a change in the constitution of that country, as the indications are that the Dutch have little sympathy for the "iron emperor" of their powerful military and naval neighbor.

It is said here that in the event of the death of Queen Wilhelmina, the Orange dynasty vanishing with the queen's death, the Hollanders will follow the example of Norway and decide the future form and head of the government by means of a referendum, with strong chances in favor of a republic. Should a German prince succeed to the throne it would not reduce Holland to the status of a dependency, but it would inevitably cement political bonds with the fatherland, which the Germans are yearning for. Efforts to draw Holland into a postal and custom union are constantly afoot, but to no avail.

It is quite probable that a German prince will succeed to the throne. The first claimant is Grand Duke William Ernest of Saxe-Weimar. The next in line is Prince Albert of Prussia, and the third is the hereditary Prince of Wied, who is considered as having the best prospects of success.

The Kaiser has sent a message of sympathy to Queen Wilhelmina.

NOT A REFUGE FOR THE GAR

Villa Near Copenhagen Bought by Queen
Alexandra and Her Sister.

LONDON, July 28.—The purchase by Queen Alexandra and her sister, the Dowager Empress of Russia, of the Villa Avidere, near Copenhagen, has started a fairy tale which has captivated the whole of Russia. The story runs that the villa has been purchased for the Czar's convenience if he has to leave Russia. The most convincing part of the narration deals with the building of secret tunnels to enable him to escape from the villa unobserved should the necessity arise.

The Queen and the Dowager Empress have certainly brought the villa, which is near the Sound, the price paid being $25,000. It is also said that a tunnel has been made, but it is a very unsensational place for excavation. A large, beautiful park of the villa is divided by the main road, which must be crossed to reach the beach. For the purpose of avoiding this, the villa has been decided to have a tunnel made under the road, thus connecting both sides of the park. The tunnel will be ready in August, when Queen Alexandra is expected in Denmark.

WOMEN'S DEPARTMENT AT THE EXHIBITION

The local Council of Women has undertaken the management of the women's department in the exhibition which opens in St. John the first day of September.

In connection with this department there will be an art room, tea room, rest room and a demonstration room. It is expected that the art room will be in charge of an efficient committee of ladies, will be further enriched by an exhibition of arts and crafts from Montreal.

The tea room will be under the management of the ladies of the W. T. U. and the Seamen's Mission. They will serve a light tea from four until eight o'clock.

The King's Daughters will have charge of the rest room which will be free to the public. The demonstration room the Victorian Order will give an exhibition of their skill in caring for the sick and wounded. Also there will be kindergarten work and Domestic Science demonstrations.

The ladies of the council who have undertaken this department solicit the co-operation of the women of the province and ask that all work available for exhibition purposes be sent in.

For any further information please apply to the president, Mrs. David McCallan, 182 Gorman street, or the secretary, Mrs. C. H. Chisholm, 121 Union street, St. John.

MONCTON DEATHS.

MONCTON, N. B., July 29.—The funeral of the late Hiram Edgett took place from his late residence here at one o'clock this afternoon and was largely attended by Moncton's most representative citizens. Rev. Mr. Stothard, Pastor of Central Methodist Church, conducted the funeral services, and the body was taken to Dover for interment in the Methodist Cemetery there.

The death occurred in this town on Sunday of James Wm. Lawler, aged twenty-three years, son of John Lawler, after lingering illness, from consumption.

F. A. Dickman & Co. have advertised today length long gloves which have been almost out of the market for some weeks. They also announce a special sale of Irish linen and handkerchiefs and English hosiery—all samples, which make an attractive shopping item for this time of year.

AGED LOVERS MAY WED THIS WEEK.

Man, Although Eighty One,
Denies Being Old.

Says "Future Wife, Who Is Sixty-Four,
Reminds Him Strongly of Dead Wife

BOSTON, July 29.—The marriage engagement of 81-year-old George E. Luzader of Whitman, to Mrs. Lydia C. Alger, aged 64, of Alger street, Brookline, which was announced Saturday, has attracted much attention, where both are well known. It is expected the marriage will take place in a few days.

Mr. Luzader is one of the best known men in Whitman. He is a member of David A. Russell post, G. A. R., of that town. He has been married before, but lost his wife many years ago. Mr. Luzader is also a "forty-niner," and went to California when the fever first struck the country. San Francisco was then a handful of huts. Mr. Luzader is of a mustel turn, and in his younger days he travelled with a minstrel company. He can sing and dance about as well as ever he could. During the civil war he saw hard service in the south. Some months ago Mr. Luzader went to California, and was near San Francisco when that city was destroyed. He lives with his grandson, Charles A. Whitman, on Temple street.

Mrs. Alger is the widow of Orlando Alger, of Broomfield, and a prominent member of the Baptist church in that city. A warm friendship sprang up between the couple when they met, and when Mr. Luzader proposed marriage he was promptly accepted. Mr. Luzader, in speaking of his future wife, says:

"She reminds me of my former wife and she is the woman I want. I don't know why people should think I am going to get married again. I am not old. I feel just as young as I did twenty-five years ago."

Mrs. Alger said: "Yes, I am going to marry Mr. Luzader soon. I am sure we will be very happy together. This week Mr. Luzader and myself are going to my former home in Nantucket on a trip." Mrs. Alger has a family.

ACTOR AND ACTRESS IN ISLAND WEDDING

PORTLAND, Me., July 29.—It was announced today that Miss Sue Van Duser, who is playing the leading part at the Gem Theatre, and her sister, the actress, will be married early in September to Harry Stubbs, an actor now in the West. The wedding will be held in a cottage in Peaks Island, which Miss Van Duser and her mother are occupying this summer.

In the last few years Miss Van Duser has been playing leads in "The Christian," "Teas," "The Cowboy and the Lady," "Miss Temple's Telegram," "Merely Mary Ann" and "Because She Loved Him So." Last year she toured the Canadian provinces and played a four weeks' engagement in Jamaica, under Mr. Stubbs' management.

Miss Van Duser and Mr. Stubbs are well known in St. John, having played here with W. S. Harkins.

600 TRACK WORKERS WENT OUT ON STRIKE

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—In order to enforce their demands for a short workday and an increased wage scale, 600 track workers employed by the United Railroads went on strike today. The men are employed on the repair and construction work of the line that were thrown out of use by the earthquake and fire of April 18. They have been working for ten hours a day, and demand an eight hour day, and an increase of 50 cents for an eight hour day.

HOLY GHOST AND US AGENTS

RICKSPONT, Me., July 29.—Agents representing the Holy Ghost and U. S. Society, with headquarters at Shiloh, Me., were here today and completed negotiations with Captain Millard C. Dow for the purchase of the bark Rebecca Crowell, 50 tons, built at East Boston in 1873, and now in port at Rockland. The bark, it is said, will be the flagship of Rev. F. W. Sanford, the leader of the colony soon to embark for the Holy Land.

STARTLING RUMORS ABOUT AUSTRIAN STEAMER.

PENSACOLA, July 29.—It was rumored here that the Austrian steamer Carolina, Captain Harwich, which cleared from this port on July 24, for Marseilles, Suez and Venice, had foundered somewhere in the Gulf of Mexico.

Later another rumor was in circulation that the vessel had gone around on one of the Florida keys. Careful inquiry fails to confirm either report.

The vessel sailed from here with a cargo of phosphate, cedar slats and barrels of tallow. It is not believed by the consignees of the cargo, the Gulf Transit Co., that there is anything in the rumors.

DOVIE WILL APPEAL

CHICAGO, July 29.—John Alexander Dovie will appeal from the decision of Judge Linds, of the French court, declaring Zion City a trust estate and holding that the deposed First Apostle has no individual proprietorship in it.
