orne the signature of en made under his pervision since its infancy. e to deceive you in this. Just-as-good" are but endanger the health of against Experiment.

STORIA

for Castor Oil, Pare-It is Pleasant. It nor other Narcotic e. It destroys Worms Diarrhea and Wind les, cures Constipation e Food, regulates the thy and natural sleep. ther's Friend.

RIA ALWAYS

WNED AT FREDERICTON. ERICTON, Nov. 22.-A drowning occurred here this afternoon

weather of the past three ad frozen the river from shore s were enjoying the excellent who left his boarding house kating for some time above the he started down river and tried under the draw of the high ige. This was about the only of the river not frozen, and the ate young man without a t dashed into the open water moment was under. Only one ersons witnessed the accident strian on the bridge tried to im of his danger, but Pelletie edlessly or not hearing the s skated on. An alarm was and search made for the hich was recovered in a few s. It was not known at first the unfortunate lad was, but rought ashore he was identified here. He is a son of Archibald

DIABOLICAL CRIME.

PPLE CREEK, Nov. 22.—Sheriff on, after investigating condin the sixth level of the Vindicane, where Supt. McCormack and Boss Beck were killed yesterday explosion, agrees with the statethe company officials that a te attempt had been made to the shaft with dynamite. The ve committee of the Mine Ownreward of $5,000 for evidence to the arrest and conviction of petrators. In a published state-killing of Supt. McCormack and Beck was one of the most diacrimes that ever darkened the trail of blood which has been by the Western Federation of in this state.

PSTEAD SPRUNG A LEAK. o Discharge Her Cargo and Go on the Blocks.

str. Hampstead sprung a leak after leaving Watter's wharf of a siphon the water was kept and she safely landed at Inwharf and discharged her and passengers. As the leak did m to be very serious, a heavy was loaded for up river. But t safe to start out with her in and the boat taken through s blocks. The hole, which was up, and she returned to Inup river at one o'clock yester-

KILLED AT HALIFAX.

IFAX, Nov. 22.—An accident ocon the construction work of the ridgewater, on Saturday, which workman named Weatle and three others. Weatle was te from a pail of hot water and nto another which was standing not stove. An explosion imme-followed, which disembowelled He lived for six hours, and ne died he made a str was all his fault, and that he en warned.

aturday last Sheriff Hatfield sold tion all the personal property of mville, Kings county, by virtue gainst the said company. The purchaser was John McGold junk dealer of Lower Cove, St. The mines have not been oper noe October, 1891.

TLAND'S SOCIALIST NOMINEE.

TLAND, Me., Nov. 23.—Charles alist party tonight.

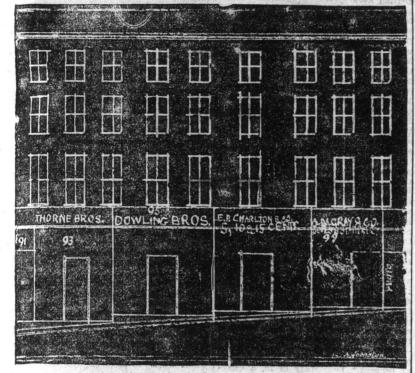

ST. JOHN SEMI-WEEKLY SUN

ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1903.

DISASTROUS FIRE.

Thousands of Dollars Worth of Property Destroyed Wednesday.

Big Blaze Started in a Departmental Store on King Street---Badly Damaged a Big Dry Goods Establishment as Well as Other Premises.

ate in being visited by big fires, and this year there has been more than the average number, with a greater loss was at the head of King street, No. 3 to property owners and insurance com-panies than usual. Early in the year and No. 4 in front of the market on most disastrous of the season, and re stock, will prove a more serious loss than had the affair occurred at any the Sand Point conflagration and the Germain street with two streams, both destruction of the Canadian Drug Co. of which were used in the rear. At premises was closely followed by the one time No. 2, at the Dufferin hotel wiping out of Murray & Gregory's big corner, was brought into use, but only saw mill; then Robertson Bros. fish warehouse was destroyed, the steamer Queen burned, with minor smaller losses.

It was little transfer to the other apparatus, No. 1 hook and ladder truck was placed in South Market street, and the aerial ladder of E. P. Charlton & Co.'s department store, King street, proved one of the sulted in the loss of many thousands of dollars. The exact amount would be hard to estimate, as the stocks affected are of the most perishable kind. The principal losers, aside from the above mentioned firm, are Thorne Bros., furriers, and Dowling Bros.

Co., and the Lawrence estate. The fire, which proved one of the it did at a time when the merchants other season of the year. This is par-usual in their response, and it was but could be made from front and rear. a short time before streams were on A few minutes before this F. A.

grinding.

It won't chop wood

other foods, and

them all rapidly, easily, coarse or fine, in uniform pieces, without mashing, squeezing, tearing or

W. H. Thorne @ Co., Limited,

St. John.

but Sargent's Gem Food Chopper will chop raw meat, cooked meat, vegetables of all kinds, fruit, crackers, bread, eggs, cheese, nuts, figs and

It will chop

Every year St. John seems unfortun- from Steamers Nos. 1, 3 and 4, with corps company joined the No. 1 boys and did excellent work. The fire, which was discovered about 7.50 o'clock, burned flercely for many hours and during a greater part of that time gained steadily upon the fire fighters. This was due entirely to the fact that the blaze started in the cellar of the Charlton premises amidst a mass of packing cases, straw Others who suffered severely are the lisses Gray, stationers; Chas. A. Consuch a dense smoke that it was imposlon, photographer; F. A. Dykeman & sible for the men to force an entrance and locate the blaze. Many times the brave lads, with most serious of the year, happening as patent respirators, forced their way did at a time when the merchants into the building and foot by foot made ected had laid in their Christmas headway, but only to be beaten back in the end. Every seeming vantage point was attacked and still little progress was made, while the smoke ticularly true of Thorne Bros., E. P. seemed to increase in volumes. With Charlton & Co., and A. M. Gray & each stream relays were sent in, but o., although the others will also be the progress was slow and then there when the fire was first discovered, dames, or more properly the smoke, as the flames, had not been located, was late.

The department were as prompt as elevator well and a united attack Co., $2,000.

Dykeman and a couple of the fire laddies put up a great fight in the rear of his store. Here on the second and third stories there are iron doors where formerly there had been an entrance into the building occupied by the Charlton cating them. It was hard work for a few minutes, but finally the iron par titions were swung to, and as the little crew fell exhausted against them they heard the whirl of the flames on the other side. It was not a minute too chairs, he nobly fought his way till at last his companions realized that it was impossible to get farther. Kee realized that the stream was useless where they were, and a few yards further meant much. Pluckily he went on, and in doing so almost lost his life.

the store of the Charlton concern, Thorne Bros. and Dowling Bros. were uneasy and willing friends helped them to make ready to move. The necessity for getting out the Dowling Bros.' stock was almost immediately apparent. The need of good teams was at once seen and Manager E.N. Abbott of the Dominion Express Co. promptly ordered to the scene of the fire their big double team and a single. In a ew minutes the Canadian Express Co. had a team on hand and the three did excellent work.

Right here should be mentioned the splendid services of Sergt. Campbell and Officers Ralston and Marshall. The Salvage Corps boys found them valu-

An effort was made, and a success ful one too, to clear the Conlon photograph saloon. While engaged in this work, Mr. Conlon, a friend named Barlow, a boy and a member of the Salvage Corps were cut off by the dense smoke. Their calls for assistance were It was either for this reason or be-

In Gray's much stock was removed, him. Whenever he landed a swing it face and Gardner drove a straight and the covers of the Salvage Corps had no force in it and his left jabs had right to the body. The crowd hissed were used to protect the rest of the stock. While the fire did not reach mons' nose and mouth a bit red. these premises, the damage by smoke

E. G. Nelson also suffer slightly by smoke; Cody, the shoe man, and Scammell's confectionery. F. A. Dykeman's premises had a narrow escape, and his for the jaw. They came together withloss will probably be considerable.

ers, as their stock, largely furs, is very Run, and is occupied by the Victoria followed this up with a left to the jaw any loss, the valuable papers by the placed right to face. Fitzsimmons

Charlton premises. A lad ran at gaining. At this juncture a volume like a definite summary of the insurceived absolutely no attenton from his Fitzsimmons seems to be losing his Fitzsimmons' round, Once to Breeze's corner, and with the of smoke and sparks shot through the ance, but the following will give a good seconds when he went to his corner. speed and seems content with acting assistance of bystanders turned in an roof and over the building occupied by idea: Building owned by the estate of Fitzsimmons appeared to be suffering more on the defence. assistance of bystanders turned in all for and over the building owner by the estate of the late J. W. Lawrence, fully insurfrom a cold. For a few minutes it caused a mild ed in the office of T. B. & H. B. Robbert of the late J. W. Lawrence, fully insurfrom a cold. however, did not take but a minute, as sensation amidst the crowd, but the inson, Norwich Union and National of a glance down South Market street assuring word came from the fire Ireland; E. P. Charlton Co. stock, Lonwas all that was required to show any fighters that it was not dangerous, as don and Lancashire, $2,500, Etna and the flames were only climbing up an Hartford, $2,000 each, with Chubb &

Dowling Bros., on stock, about $14,-000, divided up. F. A. Dykeman, $7,000 in the Commercial Union, $5,000 in the Atlas, $2,000 in the Phoenix. The properties of the Secord estate, Livingston estate and the Puddington estate are well insured. Thorne Bros., whose loss will be con-thousand dollars insurance. Jackson of No. 1 Hook and Ladder Co. had one hand slightly cut. The firemen wish to thank the Victoria Hotel, Alexandra Cafe and Frank the blows landed.

served an abundance of excellent cof-Bicyclists and all athletes depend on BENTLEY'S Liniment to keep their joints limber and muscles in trim.

LETTER OF THANKS. Deputy Mayor McGoldrick yesterday received a letter from the Association of Superintendents of Bridges and city. The letter tenders to the deputy bers of the City Council, the thanks of the association for kindnesses and courtesies shown them on their recent

OFF FOR THE PHILIPPINES. mining machinery. He is a brother of B. S. Dibblee, the well-known grocer of concern. The doors were open, and to close them was no easy task. As Mr. Dykeman and the men reached the upper ones the flames were licking the floor sills, while a dense and almost overpowering smoke was nearly suffocating them. It was bord work for Opponent.

FITZSIMMONS WON.

While this work was going on in Dykeman's a brave fireman was toying with death on the King street front. Fred Kee of No. 1 Hose Co. with others bravely fought his way into the store. He held the nozzle of the stream and others dragged the heavy hose along. Blinded by smoke and stumbling over chairs he polyke fought his way the control over the store. Referee's Decision Cheered.

on, and in doing so almost lost his life.

The instant it was realized that he could not last long where he was, "Billy" Ellis, a veteran of the departwhen he outboxed and out-generalled represent the pass of the departwhen he outboxed and out-generalled represent the pass of t could not last long where he was, "Billy" Ellis, a veteran of the department although a young man, dashed in, and in a few minutes returned with rounds. Fitzsimmons was as awkward left to the jaw, but was blocked. He repeated the attempt a moment later, but Gardner met him with a straight damage was done. Gardner jabbed a left to the jaw. Fizsimmons then sent left into Fitzsimmons' face and closed his old strength and could not land a knockout punch. Fitzsimmons was very skilful in blocking and dodging the jaw and Gardner went down for Gardner's blows and in the clinches the count of nine. Fitzsimmons chased and breakaways was very careful. The fight did not please the spectators and the men in the ring were frequently hissed when they went through the ropes with a left to jaw and a right hook to body. Fitz-forced to give the decision to Fitzsim-mons because the latter secured the knockdowns, but otherwise did no damage. It was apparent that neither man was qualified to claim championship honors.

After the fight Fitzsimmons appear-ed to be overjoyed at his victory and claimed that the reason he did not knock Gardner out was that he broke the knuckles of both hands early in the contest.

that did not respond to the first alarm salvage corps cart kept on the move turned out later.

The fire which started in the celler that did not respond to the first alarm salvage corps cart kept on the move turned out later.

The fire which started in the celler that did not have a hard punch in the celler that he d no other effect than to make Fitzsim- at the tameness of the fighting. After

ROUND 1.

They went to the centre quickly and indulged in sparring. Gardner danced out result, and Fitzsimmons missed a Thorne Bros. will also be heavy los- left swing for the jaw, and then received a similar blow from Gardner susceptible to damage by smoke. A portion of the floor above, occupied by on the chest. The fighting was slow, Geo. Lawrence, the building being the both men taking great care. Gardner property of the Lawrence estate, also was short with a right uppercut for Thorne Bros., Dowling Bros. and the the jaw. Both missed lefts for the head photographer. The upper floor of the and Gardner received a stinging outliding is what is known as Bull's straight left to the jaw. Fitzsimmons hotel people. Here there was no dam- and right to the stomach. Fitzsimage.

The Lawrences escaped with hardly left hook on the jaw. Gardner then late Mr. Lawrence being secure in the blocked a hard left for the stomach and the bell rang. The advantage was It was impossible to get anything slightly with Fitzsimmons, who re-

ROUND 2

After considerable sparring both Bob drove a straight left to the stomach and missed a right for the jaw. Bob then planted his left to the body and a right swing to the jaw. Gardner siderable, carry from eight to twelve sent in a right and a left for body and During the progress of the fire Capt. Bob returned with a right and left uppercut for the jaw. Fitzvantage, if any, being with Gardner. There was not much force to most of White for refreshments. The latter

Gardner was short with a left for the body and a moment later drove a and missed a right swing for the body. hard right to the Cornishman's ribs. Fitz then met him with a left hook hard right to the Cornishman's ribs. Fitz then met him with a less most a left to the jaw and danced away as the body. Fitzsimmons missed a left Lowell man chased him around the swing for the face and was met with ring. Fitz missed a hard left swing for the face and was met with row Gardner continued to chase Fitz, missed left swings for the jaw Ferrozone. No treatment was ever known to supply a weak system so the lower to a mixup in which and then went to a mixup in which and the mixup in wh swing for the face and was met with a straight right to the body. Gardner for body. Gardner continued to chase followed it with right swing to the ritzsimmons around the ring, but did not succeed in landing. Fitzsimmons and body. Gardner sent a hard right to risk and two rights to the kidneys. It was finally waded in and forced Gardner to jaw at the end of the reard. It was to the hardest blow Gardner had turned loose during the fight, but was not than from blows. Gardner swung a hard enough to worry Fitzsimmons, who went to his corner smiling. sparring. He got in a left straight to good right to the kidneys and swung Gardner's jaw and missed one to the a right to the jaw as the bell soundsame place. Fitzsimmons swung a ed, but it was a glancing blow and terrific right to the jaw and rushed Fitzsimmons only smiled. Fitzsim-Gardner to the ropes. Fitzsimmons put left to the face and right to the J. P. Dibblee, who has been in the body, Gardner fighting back hard. city for the past few weeks, left yes-terday on the Calvin Austin en route for the Philippine Islands. Mr. on This was Fitzsimmons' round. He Dibbise is engaged in extensive mining operations in the Philippine Islands, at the conclusion of the round, in, and in a few minutes returned with the limp form of Kee in his arms. There was no demonstration, the flames were raging too flercely and the smoke was too dense for any superficial approval. The men that were fighting for property and perhaps life calmly recognized what had been done; there was not a refullness personite was but a glance, perhaps the shake of a hand, and the work went on.

ROUND 4. Fitzsimmons swung a right to the jaw and they mixed it, Bob ducking

It was slow work and difficult in every way. The amount of property at stake was thoroughly realized by all and all were working for dear life. While the firmeme showed remarkable nerve the Salvage Corps boys were doing their showed only in the store of the Charlton concern.

George Gardner for twenty full but Gardner met him with a straight left to the jaw. Fizsimmons then sent left to the jaw. Fizsimmons then sent left to the jaw. Gardner came up fighting wildly. Fizsimmons when he was not carefulness personited two straight lefts to the jaw. Gardner came up fighting wildly. Fizsimmons when he was not carefulness personited two straight lefts to the jaw. Gardner came up fighting wildly. Fizsimmons straight left to the jaw are straight left to the jaw. Gardner came up fighting wildly. Fizsimmons for the jaw and the crowd yelled at the men. Fitz shifted and brought a hard left to the jaw. Gardner came up fighting wildly. Fitzsimmons then sent jup and the crowd yelled at the men. Gardner went to the floor. He came up and Fitzsimmons planted several plant to the jaw and floor. He came up and Fitzsimmons planted several plant to the floor. He came up and Fitzsimmons planted several plant to the floor. He came up and Fitzsimmons planted several plant to the floor. He came up and Fitzsimmons planted several plant to the floor. He came up and Fitzsimmons planted several plant to the floor. He came up and Fitzsimmons planted several plant to the floor. He came up and Fitzsimmons then swing for the head, but missed his mark. Fitzsimmons then swing for the head on the old timer once in a while, and the crowd yelled at the men. Fit

Fitzsimmons landed a left swing to a round without apparently trying to fight.

Referee Eddie Graney, at the close of the contest, said that it was the worst fight he ever saw. He was the forced to give the decision to Fitzsim-forced forced right to face and forced Gardner to a clinch. Frizsimmons laughed and tried to create an impression of being tired. Gardner drove in two lefts and a right to the body. As the gong rang Gardner put in left and right to the body without apparent damage. Fitzsimmons had the crowd guessing as to whether he was shamming or actually tired.

ROUND 6. Fitzsimmons missed a right swing for the head and backed away from Gardner. Fitzsimmons missed another a mixup Fitzsimmons caught Gardner swing that would have ended the fight with left and right to face, cutting had it landed as the bell rang. Gardner Gardner's eye open. Gardner got in a went to his corner groggy. Fitz. appears cool and smiles at his friends.

ROUND 7. Fitzsimmons rushed in and swung but the efforts were futile. The gong another right swing for the jaw, and

ROUND 8.

Both were short with lefts for the face. Fitzsimmons feinted with right left to the face. Fitz nursed his missed lefts for the body. Fitzsimmons and put a good left to the face. The got in a light left to the head, and Australian was backing away, allow-Gardner landed twice on the kidneys ing Gardner to do the leading. Gardwith rights. Gardner drove his right ner finally planted left and right to with rights. Gardner drove his right twice to the body and received a left to the body and a right to the jaw in return. Gardner sent his right to the face. Gardner blocked a vicious left for the jaw and sent a straight body and Fitzsimmons slipped to the left for the jaw and sent a straight left lightly to the face. Fitzsimmons stomach. Fitz caught Gardner on the head with a hard right swings for the left lightly to the face of the left lightly to the face. Fitzsimmons stomach for the left lightly to the face of the left lightly to the face of the left lightly to the face. Fitzsimmons stomach for the left lightly to the face of t missed left and right swings for the swing and covered up well. Gardne body and they came to a clinch in swing right to the law at the end of Gardner's corner. Fitzsimmons sent Gardner against the ropes with left Gardner has been putting up a very and fight to jaw and then put a left to the jaw and a right to body. Gardsimmons improved again in this round and had the advantage.

ROUND 9.

The Cornishman backed away, allowing Gardner to do the leading. Gardner was short with left for the head mons has slowed up considerably, but is evidently laying for his famous simmons joited Gardner with a left to backed away and Gardner got in a except transdistely the jaw, but Gardner retaliated with glancing left to the face. Fitz got in ing. is still at large.

ROUND 10.

hooked his left to the face and they ed in and blocked a right uppercut for came togother. Fitz broke it up with a left hook to the stomach and Gardner jabbed Fitzsimmons' mouth three times with left, drawing blood. Fitz-simmons crossed left to face. Gardner kept jabbing with left to the mouth and tantalizing Bob. Fitzsimmons, however, took the blows in good nature. They came together with considerable force at the close of the round and Gardner slipped to his

haunches. He was up instantly and went at once to his corner. ROUND 11.

Fitzsimmons caught Gardner with right to the stomach and then booked him viciously with a left on the wind. Fitz fought hard, but Gardner blocked him. Gardner's punches seemed to lack force. Gardner swung his left to the body and backed away from two left swings for the face. Fitz joited Gardner with a straight left to the stom-ach, and Fitz cleverly blocked Gardner's attempts. Fitzsimmons took most of the light blows, but blocked the hard ones. Gardner sent a straight right to face, and Fitz sailed in with a left swing to jaw, staggering Gard-ner. The gong rang at this stage. Fitz had the advantage.

the jaw and received a straight left on the mouth. Gardner then poked Fitzsimmons in the stomach with a straight left and chased Fitzsimmons into a corner. They danced around the ring for fully a minute without a blow being landed. Gardner kept pegging away at Fitzsimmons, but the latter easily got out of harm's way. Finally Fitzsimmons brought his right to the body and a left to the nose. Gardner sent in two straight lefts to the face and a light left to the body, but there was little force to them. Just as the round closed Fitzsimmons swung hard right to the jaw, sending Gardner to the floor. He was up within two seconds and showed no effects of the blow as he took his chair.

ROUND 14. Gardner was short with a straight left for the body. Fitz. feinted with right and sent two lefts to the jaw. He followed it with a hard left hook to saw mill; then Robertson Bros.' fish Queen burned, with minor smaller Queen burned, with minor smaller and ladder truck was placed in South Market street, and the aerial ladder and ladder truck was placed in South Market street, and the aerial ladder and an alarm came in from box 27 Wednesday that there was a big rush in that did not respond to the first alarm that did not respond to the first alarm that did not respond to the first alarm alarm came in from the first alarm that did not respond to the first alarm alarm came in from the first alarm that did not respond to the first alarm alarm came in from the first alarm that did not respond to the first alarm alarm came in from the first alarm that did not respond to the first alarm that did not respond to the first alarm alarm came in from the constraint of the body. Swinging flercely he set the Lowell and backed away from Gardner, Fitzsimmons missed another and ladder sent up to the roof of the building. The durable like for the head and backed away from Gardner. Fitzsimmons missed another and ladder sent up to the roof of the building. The durable like for the head and backed away from Gardner. Fitzsimmons missed another and ladder sent up to the roof of the building. The durable long before the first alarm to the effort to and a ladder sent up to the roof of the building. The durable long before a first that the fight was first the first alarm to the floor for five seconds. Swinging flercely he sent the Lowell and then sent in a straight right to the body. Swinging flercely he set that the fight was first and the little party safely rescued from a second story window.

While the great has the first alarm to the defensive that the fight was first and the little party safely rescued from a second story window.

Gardner Fitzsimmons missed another and then sent in a first to the bady and then sent in the floor for five seconds. Swinging first the first and the little party safely rescued to the flist for the bedy and then sent in the floor for the bead and then the jaw and a hard right to the body. from his nose and as they went to less settled the dissolution of parliaclinch the crowd hissed Gardner for ment cannot be delayed.

hitting in the clinch. Fitz. swung his

"Mr. Chamberlain said the country on the around the ring and missed a right

ROUND 15. Fitzsimmons swung with left and missed. Then they both went to a hard with left and right to the head. clinch. Emerging, Fitzsimmons miss-He fought fiercely in a mixup and Fitzsimmons was hissed for holding on. Gardner missed a hard right swing left to the jaw. Fitz drove his right for the jaw. Fitz swung left hard to to the body and then shifted it to the jaw and Gardner countered with right head and evaded counters. Fitz fought to the jaw and left to the body. Gard-carefully and made his blows count ner missed right uppercut for the jaw when he reached the Lowell man's an-and chased Fitzsimmons to a corner atomy. Fitz landed a left and right without landing a blow. Fitzsimmons swing to the jaw, and just missed anthen missed a left swing for the jaw. other for the same place. Fitz jarred Both men looked very tired at this Gardner with a hard right swing to stage. They got to close quarters and the jaw and a left hook to the body. both tried lefts and rights for the body Gardner again stalled. Fitz missed found both men fighting tamely with as they came together Gardner got in the crowd jeering and urging them on. a straight left to the face. This was > Gardner got in a light right on Bob's face and forced him to a corner. Fitz came back with a stinging straight strength carefully and made cessary moves. Fitz swung hard with right for the jaw, but Gardner ducked swung right to the jaw at the end of the round, but the force was slight disappointing fight.

ROUND 17.

They spent much time in desultory sparring. Fitz. looked for an opening. Fitz. got in a light left to the face and was short with a straight left for the Fitz. to the ropes. No harm was done, to jaw at the end of the reard. It was quickly with strength and energy. No who went to his corner siniing. ROUND 18.

Gardner forced Fitz. about the ring, but for a box or an beste for $1.50, missing left and right swings for the jaw. Fitz, tried a left swing for the jaw, but Gardner got inside is and Get a supply taken without fail. tried a right hook for the body, but a hard right to the law. Fitzsimmone two rights hard to the law as they clos-

Gardner forced Fitz to the ropes, Fitz came back with a left to the head. Gardner then slipped to the floor, but Fitz assisted him to his feet. Gardner sent a straight left to Fitztwo more weak lefts to the face. Fitzsimmons smiled as he swung a left for head, but it went around Gardner's head. Fitz missed a swing for the head and Gardner rushed in and got right and left to the body. Gardner then hit Fitz rather low and was cautioned by the referee. Gardner then got in several good rights. The bell rang with Gardner fighting fiercely and he succeeded in landing several short-arms to Fitzsimmons' stomach. Both were weak.

ROUND 20.

Fitz missed a straight left for the face and they went to a clinch. Fitzsimmons led with left for the face in a mixup. Gardner bombarded at Fitzsimmons' stomach, but the blow were all blocked. Gardner got in a light left to the stomach and blocked two left swings for the body. Gardner swung a right to the body and in a mixup landed several rights and lefts to the body. They clinched and the referee could hardly separate them. Fitzsimmons sent a straight left to the face and both clung to each other. Gardner did most of the hanging on. Gardner was clinging to Fitzsimmons and Referee Graney could not separate them as the final gong rang. Graney promptly gave the decision to Fitzsimmons, which was greeted

LORD ROSEBERY

Is Now Ridiculing Chamberlain and His Policy.

The Fiscal Question Must Be Speedily Solved — Dissolution of Parlia ment Cannot Be Long Delayed.

LONDON, Nov. 25 .- Lord Rosebery spoke to 3,000 people on the fiscal queswas ruined, while Mr. Balfour, on the against the ropes. He followed him other hand, said the country was extremely prosperous, but soon would be ruined. The board of trade blue book, however, had decided against both of these contentions." In summing up, Lord Rosebery said that Mr. Chamberlain had not proved his case, and that the evils of which he complained existed only in his imagination. A real remedy for any existing adverse conditions could be reached by stimulating practical, technical and commercial education, reducing the national expenditure and the drink bill of the people, encouraging the growth of cotton within the empire, teaching commercial travelers how to study the tastes of the people and practical steps "which would be better training for race competiti than mandates for negotiation with foreign countries."

STRICKEN WITH PNEUMONIA

ALMOST READY TO DIE-ALONZO W. DOUGLAS OF WOODBRIDGE

WAS SAVED BY FERROZONE.

"For the benent of others." writes Mr. Douglas, "I desire to state the results I derived from the use of Ferroone. Two years ago I was stricke with Pneumonia. So severe was the attack and so reduced was my strength that my life was despaired of. I had the very best medical attention, but made no progress towards recovery. When reduced to practically a skeleton a kind friend told me of the remarkable powers of Ferrozone. An improveboth missed rights for the body. Fitz. ment began almost at once. I gained steadily in weight and strength until body and Gardner put in a right to Ferrozone made me a new man. I will head and a left to the face, forcing gladly answer enquiries from other Fitz, to the ropes. No harm was done, sufferers if they care to have further however, the blows being weak. Fitz. particulars about my recovery. Fer> tenic does its work so thoroughly. It is a specific for tiredness, languor, loss of appetite, weakness after fevers, and makes you strong and keeps you strong —in a word, it assures health and costs

ROUND 10.

Fitzsimmons missed a fierce right to the face lightly. Bob feinted with hook for the head and Gardner was wild with a right swing. Fitzsimmons backed away and contented himself with blocking Gardner's leads. Fitzsimmons inlead Gardner with a right and swing a vicious left for the jaw, but missed. He then swing hard with right, but received a left hook to the jaw that made him wince. Fitzsimmons inlead Gardner with a leads.