Chas. Gunter has completed rafting his lumber at the Little Lake.
Miss May Young, who has been at home during the winter, has gone to take her place on the steamer Majestic.
The ice is very much broken up in the lake and a good wind will clear it away.
A. L. Gunter was the first in this place to plant potatoes but several farmers have planted since.
Frank E. Straight (teacher), who has been ill has reopened his school again.
Otty Orchard, who spent some weeks in Charlotte Co., came home to do some farming.
Harry Bedford sowed a nice field of wheat last week.

Wm. Durost and Charles Farris have both been re-roofing their dwellings.
Wm. A. Farris is painting and improving his dwelling.

NEWCASTLE

Newcastle, April 30.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles McGowan last night received word that their son, Wilfred McGowan, had been killed in action at the front. Wilfred, who was only eighteen years of age, went overseas with the 132nd Battalion last fall. Besides his parents he is survived by the following brothers and sisters: William, overseas; Edward and Patrick at home; Maggie, Boston; Mary (Mrs. Harold Gates) Millinocket, Maine; Lily (Mrs. Robert Jardine) Quarryville, and Annie at home.
Messrs. E. A. McCurdy, G. G. Stothart, D. J. Buckley, David Ritchie, D. W. Stothart, J. A. D. P. Doyle, John Russell, C. E. Fish and John S. Scott went to Moncton today to interview Assistant General Superintendent McNeely to ask for extended shipping facilities at Newcastle station and the deep water terminus, rendered necessary by the great increase of trade here during the last year.

PORTAGE VALE

Portage Vale, April 30.—Winter is certainly dying hard.
There is much illness in the locality. Mrs. Frances Matthews is quite ill. Mrs. Ralph Godsoe, is very low at her home in Anagance.
Mr. J. W. Gifford while pulling on a sick a few days ago, was the victim of a painful and serious accident, by hurting, it is feared, his spine.
J. W. DeMille received a telegram a few days ago, stating that his son, Winston C., had been wounded. As previously reported, Talnage Tenkles was wounded, and went from this place with the 104th Battalion. Their many friends hope that their wounds will not prove serious.
Major C. I. Dunfield and wife arrived in Anagance from England a few days ago. He had to return on account of ill health. As it will be remembered he crossed with the Fighting 20th, and was in the trenches till ill health forced him to England where he has been for several months. After visiting his father and mother at Anagance for a short time, he went to St. John, but expects to return from city in a few days.
An unique thing happened in this place recently when a stock bull owned by Clifford Brothers, while out for exercise escaped to the woods and has not yet been captured. Last summer he was pastured on the range and it is supposed that his love for the wild proved too strong for him.
It has reached the ears of your correspondent that several left this part of the province recently for St. John, so as to be there before it became too dry.

CHICAGO'S MAYOR SAID TO HAVE BEEN GUILTY OF DISLOYAL TALK

Report of His Remarks Forwarded to Washington—Refused to Invite Commissions to Windy City.

Chicago, April 30.—A report of alleged "disloyal" utterances of Mayor William Hale Thompson has been prepared and forwarded to Washington. The report was said to include the newspapers containing the mayor's statements declining to invite the British and French commissions to Chicago. It appears that after the mayor declared that he would be "presuming considerably take the position that all of the people of Chicago are in favor of the invitation," the city council, by unanimous vote, invited the members of the two missions to visit this city.

WONDERFUL STUFF!

GEE! YOU'LL LIKE IT
Apply a few drops then lift corns or calluses off with fingers—no pain.

No humbug! Any corn, whether hard, soft or between the toes, will loosen right up and lift out, without a particle of pain or soreness. This drug is called freezone and is a compound of ether discovered by a Cincinnati man.

Ask at any drug store for a quarter ounce of freezone, which will cost but a trifle, but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every corn or callus. Put a few drops directly upon any tender, aching corn or callus. Instantly the soreness disappears and shortly the corn or callus will loosen and can be lifted off with the fingers. This drug freezone doesn't eat out the corns or calluses but shrivels them without even irritating the surrounding skin.

Just think! No pain at all; no soreness or smarting when applying it or afterwards. Try a little and see for yourself.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND BY... SHALL WOMEN VOTE

"No," says Bishop Medley, "Home is women's sphere; Man must be made happy While he carries here, His the right to govern In church and state. Women with the franchise Would deteriorate. Fancy women raising With the Irish band, In the House of Commons Of our motherland, Fighting Mr. Gladstone, For Sir Stafford, Who would be securing The happiness of men? "No," says Bishop Medley.

"No," says Parson Armstrong, "Listen to St. Paul; Women in the churches, Should keep silence all, If they seek for knowledge, Let the husbands teach; They have all the wisdom And the right of speech, "No," says Parson Armstrong.

Deborah, Judge of Israel, You sadly missed your sphere, Was no man made unhappy By your mad career? Miriam, hush your music! Silence, I beseech; Let some man interpret The lesson you must teach. How could you, saintly Anna, Carry all day and night Within the sacred temple, And serve with such delight? Was there no Bishop Medley, No Parson Armstrong wise, No man to tell you, Deborah, In home's safe corner lies?

Try Phenix and Tryphosa, Who labored in the Lord; The well beloved Peris, Who did great help afford; Priscilla, who instructed Apollus in the truth; Lois and Eunice who once taught A Bishop in his youth; Were they indeed mistaken, And does the Bible plan, Make woman's only mission, The happiness of man?

Alas too late the lesson For these illustrious dead, Who missed their high vocation And served the Lord instead. Of their deterioration, The Bible does not tell, But modern wives and maidens This lesson ponder well; For modern Priest and Bishop Affirm that so't will be, A woman voting in the church Will lose her modesty!

Then women cease, I charge you Your efforts in the cause; You have no interest in funds No knowledge of the laws, Withdraw your contributions, Devise no scheme or plan, But concentrate your efforts On the happiness of man.

The above poem was written, St. John lady some years ago, a applicable today, not only to clergymen but to matters of state. The world is still full of men who "The woman's place is in the home," but they forget that unless we are to be kept in a servana the our for instance that as women have any in making the laws which govern public institutions to withdraw support and contributions from one in this city alone, no one deny that it would be perfectly and yet I venture to think it would quite upsetting.

Nova Scotia has decided that time is not ripe for the franchise.
