AMERICAN WILDMEN RETURN WELL PLEASED

Three Moose, Three Caribou and Two Bears Result of North Shore Visit.

W. S. Hodgkins, of Boston; S. Holmes, S. A. Sizer and W. D. Stark, of Jacksonville (Fla.), were at the Royal Hotel Thursday. They have been hunting in the Bathurst and Haribogue districts of the Intercolonial Railway hunting grounds, and are returning well pleased with their two weeks stay. Among them they secured three moose, three caribou and two bears.

Mr. Holmes, who was in the Bathibogue district, four miles from the railroad, shot a moose which the guide assured him had the best head seen around there in fifteen years. There are many with a greater spread but this, he says, is wonderfully symmetrical. He says that next year there will be a very large party of sportsmen from Jacksonville for the New Brunswick hunting season.

Are You Subject to Stiffness

Peppermint is in the neck or shoulder. First thing is a good rub with Nervine. No more speedy remedy has it adopted.

When applied to the neck, Nervine gives the flexibility and vitality to the muscles, and the stiffness disappears. Whether in the chest or throat nothing can surpass Nervine. Dr. B. Deming, Lumber Merchant, Oak Bay (B.V.I.), "Rubbed me at night, trouble is gone by morning. I have proved Nervine a great medicine. Everyone who uses the same, and Nervine always makes good, 25c. bottles sold everywhere."

REASON OF PURCHASE

School Board Looking to Time When Another Building Will Be Necessary.

For some years it has been felt by the members of the board of school trustees that they may have to erect a new school building on the Weldon lot next to the Wiggin. The old building, built in 1855, was because of the crowded condition of Victoria school on the one hand and because it has long been apparent that the rooms in the Leinster street building are not quite suitable for school purposes.

REV. DR. GATES SATISFIED WITH PRESENT CHARGE

Montreal, Oct. 11.—(Special)—Rev. Dr. G. He was twenty-eight years old and for the past six or eight years had been in poor health, though able to be about until some months ago. In their bereavement the family will have the sympathy of many friends.

Robert E. Taylor. Amherst, Oct. 10.—(Special)—The death occurred here today of Robert E. Taylor, a prominent lumberman and farmer, of this city, who died at 10 o'clock last night. Mr. Taylor resided at Amherst, where he carried on an extensive lumbering and manufacturing business. Recognizing the growth of Amherst, he purchased several building lots in the town, erecting fine residences on each, in one of which he was residing at the time of his death. He had just commenced the erection of a planing mill and wood factory, when he was taken ill by Bright's disease, which resulted in his death at the age of fifty-nine. He was an althorough and generous supporter of the Methodist church, and left a family consisting of a daughter of W. J. Fisher, and one young child. The funeral will take place Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Robert Mitchell. Moncton, Oct. 11.—(Special)—Mrs. Mitchell, wife of Robert Mitchell, a well known I. C. R. machanic, died yesterday at her home in Corvella, Albert county, shortly after ten o'clock last night. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell had been attending services in the Central Methodist church, when Mrs. Mitchell complained of feeling ill and laid down while Mr. Mitchell stabled his horse. She was taken suddenly ill and expired immediately. Heart failure being the cause of death. The deceased was formerly Miss Ring, daughter of the late John Ring, of St. John, and was about fifty years of age. She was highly esteemed by all who knew her, and she left a general bereavement in the community.

Horace Read. The body of Horace Read, of Summerside, arrived here Friday. Mr. Reid was a nephew of Rev. T. J. Deinet, of St. Stephen. He died in the west of typhoid fever.

D. Sheven-Bishop.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at 23 Sewell street Wednesday night, when John S. Orr, of St. John, was united in marriage to Miss Wynne, of Beulah, Kings county. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. P. J. Stackhouse, B. D. Sheven-Bishop.

Windsor (N.S.) correspondence of October 9 tells of the marriage of J. Joseph Dohell, of this city, to Miss Letitia B. Shaw, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Barnes, Victoria street, Windsor. The officiating clergyman was Rev. F. E. Barker, and the ceremony luncheon was served and then Mr. and Mrs. Dohell left for Truro. They will make their home in Moncton. Mr. Dohell was formerly employed in the Differon Hotel. The groom's present to the bride was $50 in gold.

The wedding of Miss Ida Winslow Hanson, of Lewiston (Me.), and Lorne Randolph Fowler, a Fredericton young man, took place Monday evening at Lewiston, where the groom has made his home for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Fowler left for Montreal on Monday. The groom was accompanied by his father, Mr. L. H. Fowler, of Fredericton. The bride's father, Mr. J. H. Fowler, of Fredericton, was also present.

In connection with the tenders for improvements in the east side toll house, which were dealt with by the ferry committee on Monday, no exact estimate was made by architect, H. H. Mot. He had said in conversation that the work would cost in the vicinity of $3,000, and it is believed that the total of $2,735 was somewhat within his figures.

F. H. J. Ruell's gasoline yacht Corona, which was lost in Saturday's gale from Miramichi, was found sunk in the head of the Miramichi by Ald. T. A. Lantaulon on Tuesday, and with F. A. Dyken's aid was raised. The yacht was damaged, but a hole was made in the bow of the yacht.

As Dr. M. L. MacFarland, of Fairville, was spending a patient at a Leinster street residence Thursday, a hand grip containing about $50 worth of property was stolen from a patient's room. The doctor, after the theft, was informed by the patient's wife, and the doctor felt he should thank the kind-hearted visitor for not taking the whole outfit.

It is thought probable that Conductor Joseph Henson will be advanced to the position of conductor on the C. P. train between this city and Vancouver, made vacant by the death of Melbourne Burgess. Mr. Burgess having been one of the senior conductors of the road, it will probably mean a step ahead for nearly all the remaining men.

Jacob Pirrung, of Wayland (N.Y.), near Buffalo, is at the Grand Union Hotel. Pirrung is the owner of large interests in the coal fields of West Virginia, and is in the province looking for a suitable chance to establish an incubator factory, which would employ about fifty hands. He said Wednesday that he would probably build the factory in St. John.

COSTLY DRIVE FOR PLASTER ROCK MEN

Hired a Horse and Killed It in Collision With an Engine—One of the Party Badly Injured.

Rath, Carleton county, Oct. 9.—On Saturday John Adams and Cole Swin, of Plaster Rock, hired a horse and carriage from Gilbert Gibson's livery stable to drive a few miles into the country, but instead of that drove to Perth, where it is said, they got a supply of liquor. On their return they collided with the Toibique accommodation train at Kearney's Crossing, the horse running full tilt into the engine.

The horse was thrown some distance from the track and killed, and the carriage was badly wrecked. The occupants were thrown out and Swin was quite seriously injured, being badly lacerated about his head and having his collar bone fractured. Adams escaped uninjured.

The train stopped and brought the men down to Bath, and Swin is at present under the care of Dr. Cummins at the Exchange Hotel.

The revisors met at the Exchange Hotel yesterday and several names were added to the voters' lists. The final revision will be on the 25th inst.

Of the oldest residents of the parish, Roger McEwry and Hugh O'Donnell, died last week. Mr. McEwry was one of the best known farmers in this section, and was an active supporter of the Liberal party.

Chatham Happenings.

Chatham, Oct. 10.—Special services are being held every evening this month in the pro-theatrical.
