

FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

YARMOUTH

Yarmouth, N. S., Jan. 29.—Yarmouth was shocked on Sunday morning last by the sudden death of one of her best known and most highly respected citizens in the person of William McGill...

CHIPMAN

Chipman, N. B., Jan. 29.—Miss Louise Ferris, Sussex, and Mrs. M. B. Rees, Waterbury, were guests of their hosts here on Sunday...

SALESBURY

Saleisbury, N. B., Feb. 1.—The advanced department of the Salesbury Superior school which has been closed since the Christmas holidays when the principal, Geo. Collette, resigned to enlist for overseas service, was reopened again this morning with L. H. Barnett as principal...

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Jan. 31.—Many friends gathered to learn of the death of Mrs. Lucy McEae, widow of James McEae, which occurred yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Woodworth, of Chemical Road...

GRAND FALLS

Grand Falls, Jan. 29.—Major Laughlin, of D company, 104th battalion, spent the week-end in town the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Wiley. He returned on Monday to Woodstock...

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Jan. 31.—Many friends gathered to learn of the death of Mrs. Lucy McEae, widow of James McEae, which occurred yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Woodworth, of Chemical Road...

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Jan. 31.—Many friends gathered to learn of the death of Mrs. Lucy McEae, widow of James McEae, which occurred yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Woodworth, of Chemical Road...

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Jan. 31.—Many friends gathered to learn of the death of Mrs. Lucy McEae, widow of James McEae, which occurred yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Woodworth, of Chemical Road...

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Jan. 31.—Many friends gathered to learn of the death of Mrs. Lucy McEae, widow of James McEae, which occurred yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Woodworth, of Chemical Road...

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Jan. 31.—Many friends gathered to learn of the death of Mrs. Lucy McEae, widow of James McEae, which occurred yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Woodworth, of Chemical Road...

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Jan. 31.—Many friends gathered to learn of the death of Mrs. Lucy McEae, widow of James McEae, which occurred yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Woodworth, of Chemical Road...

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Jan. 31.—Many friends gathered to learn of the death of Mrs. Lucy McEae, widow of James McEae, which occurred yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Woodworth, of Chemical Road...

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Jan. 31.—Many friends gathered to learn of the death of Mrs. Lucy McEae, widow of James McEae, which occurred yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Woodworth, of Chemical Road...

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Jan. 31.—Many friends gathered to learn of the death of Mrs. Lucy McEae, widow of James McEae, which occurred yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Woodworth, of Chemical Road...

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Jan. 31.—Many friends gathered to learn of the death of Mrs. Lucy McEae, widow of James McEae, which occurred yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Woodworth, of Chemical Road...

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Jan. 31.—Many friends gathered to learn of the death of Mrs. Lucy McEae, widow of James McEae, which occurred yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Woodworth, of Chemical Road...

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Jan. 31.—Many friends gathered to learn of the death of Mrs. Lucy McEae, widow of James McEae, which occurred yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Woodworth, of Chemical Road...

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Jan. 31.—Many friends gathered to learn of the death of Mrs. Lucy McEae, widow of James McEae, which occurred yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Woodworth, of Chemical Road...

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Jan. 31.—Many friends gathered to learn of the death of Mrs. Lucy McEae, widow of James McEae, which occurred yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Woodworth, of Chemical Road...

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Jan. 31.—Many friends gathered to learn of the death of Mrs. Lucy McEae, widow of James McEae, which occurred yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Woodworth, of Chemical Road...

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Jan. 31.—Many friends gathered to learn of the death of Mrs. Lucy McEae, widow of James McEae, which occurred yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Woodworth, of Chemical Road...

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Jan. 31.—Many friends gathered to learn of the death of Mrs. Lucy McEae, widow of James McEae, which occurred yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Woodworth, of Chemical Road...

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Jan. 31.—Many friends gathered to learn of the death of Mrs. Lucy McEae, widow of James McEae, which occurred yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Woodworth, of Chemical Road...

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Jan. 31.—Many friends gathered to learn of the death of Mrs. Lucy McEae, widow of James McEae, which occurred yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Woodworth, of Chemical Road...

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Jan. 31.—Many friends gathered to learn of the death of Mrs. Lucy McEae, widow of James McEae, which occurred yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Woodworth, of Chemical Road...

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Jan. 31.—Many friends gathered to learn of the death of Mrs. Lucy McEae, widow of James McEae, which occurred yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Woodworth, of Chemical Road...

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Jan. 31.—Many friends gathered to learn of the death of Mrs. Lucy McEae, widow of James McEae, which occurred yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Woodworth, of Chemical Road...

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Jan. 31.—Many friends gathered to learn of the death of Mrs. Lucy McEae, widow of James McEae, which occurred yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Woodworth, of Chemical Road...

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Jan. 31.—Many friends gathered to learn of the death of Mrs. Lucy McEae, widow of James McEae, which occurred yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Woodworth, of Chemical Road...

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Jan. 31.—Many friends gathered to learn of the death of Mrs. Lucy McEae, widow of James McEae, which occurred yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Woodworth, of Chemical Road...

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Jan. 31.—Many friends gathered to learn of the death of Mrs. Lucy McEae, widow of James McEae, which occurred yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Woodworth, of Chemical Road...

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Jan. 31.—Many friends gathered to learn of the death of Mrs. Lucy McEae, widow of James McEae, which occurred yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Woodworth, of Chemical Road...

SHE RECEIVED THE "FRUIT-A-LIVES"

Mrs. Corbett Read the Advertisement and Tried It

Avon, Ont., May 14th, 1914. "I have used 'Fruit-a-lives' for Indigestion and Constipation with most excellent results, and they continue to be my only medicine. I saw 'Fruit-a-lives' advertised with a letter in which some one recommended them very highly, so I tried them. The results were more than satisfactory, and I have no hesitation in recommending 'Fruit-a-lives'."

Time is proving that 'Fruit-a-lives' can always be depended upon to give prompt relief in all cases of Constipation and Stomach Trouble. See a box of $2.50, trial size 25c. At dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

Mr. Corbett died at the home of Mrs. Corbett on Wednesday evening, Jan. 27, at the age of seventy-three. He leaves a wife and three children. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon at All Saints' church.

Mr. Corbett died at the home of Mrs. Corbett on Wednesday evening, Jan. 27, at the age of seventy-three. He leaves a wife and three children. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon at All Saints' church.

Mr. Corbett died at the home of Mrs. Corbett on Wednesday evening, Jan. 27, at the age of seventy-three. He leaves a wife and three children. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon at All Saints' church.

Mr. Corbett died at the home of Mrs. Corbett on Wednesday evening, Jan. 27, at the age of seventy-three. He leaves a wife and three children. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon at All Saints' church.

Mr. Corbett died at the home of Mrs. Corbett on Wednesday evening, Jan. 27, at the age of seventy-three. He leaves a wife and three children. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon at All Saints' church.

Mr. Corbett died at the home of Mrs. Corbett on Wednesday evening, Jan. 27, at the age of seventy-three. He leaves a wife and three children. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon at All Saints' church.

Mr. Corbett died at the home of Mrs. Corbett on Wednesday evening, Jan. 27, at the age of seventy-three. He leaves a wife and three children. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon at All Saints' church.

Mr. Corbett died at the home of Mrs. Corbett on Wednesday evening, Jan. 27, at the age of seventy-three. He leaves a wife and three children. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon at All Saints' church.

bers of the institute most pleasantly on Saturday evening. The guests brought their work, and while their fingers knitted busily, they puzzled their brains over a series of clever conundrums, the prize for guessing the greatest number, going to Pearl Peters. All listened with keen interest and appreciation to the splendid letters written home from the front by the various Gascon boys, all of whom were recipients of the well-filled Christmas boxes sent by the Women's Institute. Nearly all spoke of the condition in which the boxes arrived, showing that the "Fruit-a-lives" was good "even where the big shells fall," but one member of the 1st Battalion declared his box looked "as if it had been all through the wars" after the serving of delicious refreshments, the pleasant gathering broke up.

Mrs. Rubins, who has been spending the week in Fredericton, returned home on Saturday evening. Miss Ella Simpson and Miss Jessie Weyman were visitors in Fredericton on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Daniel Brooks received the good news last week that her daughter, Mrs. Ross, of St. John, who had been very seriously ill, was recovering. It is now out of danger. Mrs. Ross' recovery is good news with the Army Service Corps.

George McDermott, whose home was destroyed by fire early in the winter, has now returned to his home in Fredericton, for which he and a number of friends took down from Swan Creek last week. A party of about fifteen went up to the house on Thursday evening, and Mr. McDermott was in his car, and the day was spent in taking down the barn which was destroyed by fire. Mr. McDermott is now in Fredericton, and Mrs. Arch McAllister has been quite ill during the past week, as the result of an accident in which she fell, striking her side.

ANDOVER Andover, N. B., Jan. 31.—Mrs. Frances West, of Centreville, has spent the past week in the village visiting Mrs. Thomas Cameron and Mrs. M. S. Sutton. Mrs. West has been visiting her aunt, Miss Sarah Watson. Mrs. Elijah Sisson returned last Monday from Four Falls after a pleasant visit to Mrs. P. J. Macdonald. Mrs. Charles Armstrong, who is training in St. John for overseas service, spent several days last week with her mother, Mrs. Ruth Hopper, of New Brunswick. Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Dickson went to Kincaird last Tuesday to attend the Burns celebration.

The death occurred this week at Albert Mines, Mrs. Sarah, widow of William Smith of that place. The deceased was 80 years of age, but had been in fair health until recently. She was held in high esteem. Three sons survive—Charles and Whitman, of Albert Mines, and Sanford, living in the States. Another son, Howard, died a few years ago.

NORTON Norton, N. B., Feb. 1.—Mrs. Vernon Keirstein and son Cecil have returned to their home in St. John, after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. George Keirstein. Mrs. Hopt Parlee and son of Hartford (Conn.), are visiting friends and relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Heine returned from their home in New Brunswick, where they were visiting Rev. and Mrs. Coy. Hermit Allaby of the 11th Battalion, St. John, is very ill, and the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Allaby, is being visited by Mrs. Warren Baxter and little daughter of St. John who have been visiting friends and relatives here.

Mrs. Warren Coy of Seckville (N. B.), was the guest this week of Mrs. Thomas Humphrey. Mrs. Bertha Higgins, of St. John has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. W. Galbraith. Miss Stella Carson spent Sunday with friends in St. John. Mr. and Mrs. Heber Sharp, of Halifax, were in town on a trip to Montreal and Toronto are the guests of Miss E. J. Stark.

HARVEY STATION Harvey Station, Feb. 1.—Captain L. P. D. Hilly, of St. John, and Sergeant Major Joseph Fredericton addressed a largely attended meeting in the hall at Manners Street on Friday evening in the interests of recruiting. Two young men, Fred and Leonard Messer, were secured. There was some disappointment at the non-appearance of Lieutenant Guthrie, who was also expected to attend the meeting. It is probable that more young men in this section will enlist.

The N. B. Metals Ltd. of Lake George have a quantity of iron of twenty tons of iron from the mines there, the shipments were mostly to Philadelphia and Montreal over sixty men are now employed at and around the mines. Charles Glasier who had his hand taken off by a wood cutting machine at Magog, Quebec a short time ago is making good progress toward recovery. He is staying at Robinson's Hotel here. There have not been any preaching services in the Presbyterian churches here for three Sabbath days. The pastor, Rev. H. J. McKay, who is undergoing surgical treatment at the Victoria Hospital, Fredericton. Mr. McKay is reported to be doing nicely, but will be expected to stay in bed here till the middle of February.

GAGETOWN Gagetown, Jan. 31.—Rev. and Major C. G. Pincombe was here this week to take part in the funeral services of the late Charles Dykeman, of Jenness. While in Gagetown, Major Pincombe was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Caswell. On Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marshall, a very pleasant social evening was spent, a collection being taken up for missions, and the sum of seven dollars was realized. A large number drove down from Gagetown to attend, and the evening was enjoyed passed in games and other amusements. Mrs. H. B. Bridges, president of the Women's Institute, remained the evening.

Word has been received of the death of Portland (Me.), of George O'Boyle, a young son of Mr. and Mrs. James O'Boyle, of Chemical Road. Death was due to pneumonia. The deceased leaves a wife and one child. He is also survived by his parents, one brother, Peter, of Chemical Road, and two sisters, Mrs. Whitman Milton, of Albert Mines, and Mrs. H. A. Haley, living in the western States.

Every barrel of FLOUR is alike. Always the same. Never changes. When you use it you get More Bread and Better Bread Buy it and see for yourself.

Northumberland County Orange Lodge Newcastle, Feb. 2.—Northumberland County Orange Lodge met in annual session in Newcastle yesterday afternoon and evening. In the absence of County Master Cathbert Donald, Upper Blackville, who is at the front, County Deputy Master Babrik reported; R. A. Walls, secretary.

Dr. Co. Master Babrik reported that during the year a district lodge had been established having under its jurisdiction lodges No. 184 (Morehouse), 142 (Bliss-Beld), 158 (Donkton), and 158 (Carroll's Crossing). All in western end of the county. A new lodge had been organized at Coughlan (No. 186), on Aug. 12.

He was sorry to have to report the absence of W. Co. Master Major Cathbert Donald and Co. Chaplain Private R. Wood from our midst, but glad to know that they saw it their duty to take up arms to defend the king and country. He reported one new O. B. A. during the year (Douglstown), making three in the county.

The address of welcome, on behalf of the local brethren, was given by H. H. Stuart. The correspondence committee's report was adopted, sections 1-3 reading as follows: Your committee met with approval the progress made by the organization in the western part of the county, of a district lodge and trust that it will be further that this county lodge it will be congratulated on the organization of a new lodge at Coughlan, No. 186.

Your committee notes with deep satisfaction that two members of our executive, namely the County Master (Major Cathbert Donald, Upper Blackville), and county chaplain, Private R. Wood, Douglstown, have offered their services for king and country and the defence of liberty, and would recommend the department of militia and defence to keep brothers serving at the front in good standing.

The next meeting will be in Chatham. After installation of officers, the county lodge adjourned, and the members were entertained to supper in St. James hall. LIVERLY SCOTCH ACT GRUBS IN NEWCASTLE Newcastle, Feb. 1.—Scott Act circles have been lively the last few days. The proprietor of the Windsor Hotel has been fined $100 for second violation of the act, and the proprietor of the Miramichi Hotel sent to jail for a third offence. Both these cases are appealed. In addition there has lately been another successful raid in each, and in all six cases are up against them.

The funeral of the late Elizabeth McCaffery, who died on Saturday, of pneumonia, aged 45, was held yesterday, in St. Mary's cemetery. Cornelius McCaffery is a brother of the deceased. The soldiers of the 182nd were entertained in Temperance Hall last night by the members of the Baptist congregation. An excellent programme was provided by the soldiers and their hosts, and luncheon was served. The Roman Catholic people will entertain in the same place next Monday night.

OTTAWA OFFICERS WEDS IN ENGLAND London, Feb. 2.—(Montreal Gazette Cable)—The marriage was celebrated at Newington church, Folkestone, today, of Lieut. C. Heathcote Graham, of Ottawa, of the 2nd Divisional Train, to Miss Dorothy Buckley, of London. The bride is the vicar of the parish, performed the ceremony. Major J. McKean acted as best man, while many Canadian officers were present, including General and Mrs. Steele and General and Mrs. MacDougall. The bride was secretary of the Beachborough Park Hospital.

PREDICTS

Bishop Richardson, in Tells of His Change His Lordship Also Everyone's Duty to tendance of Clergy a

Fredericton, Feb. 1.—This afternoon the Anglican synod, opened in House auditorium, city hall, and largely with the reading of a paper by Bishop Richardson, of Fredericton, in what was considered the charge relating to prohibition, and his pronouncements were with marked approval.

Dean Neales submitted the standing committee which was unanimously. Rev. W. W. Craig, rector of this church at Montreal, was invited to a seat on the platform. His talk occasioned a pay a glowing testimonial to his lordship's work in the province. Bishop Richardson was glad to have the opportunity present at synod and friends.

Very Rev. Dean Neales moved various reports now before synod. The motion was seconded by Rev. G. E. Sewell and adopted. In motion of Rev. Mr. Scott Hill, was invited to a seat on the platform. Archdeacon submitted the statistical report of the synod. Archdeacon gave motion asking the synod to stamp of approval on the organ a laymen's society.

The report of the board of was submitted by Archdeacon's Secretary appointment, and received and adopted. Rev. G. E. presented a statement for still for the year 1910. In motion of Rev. Mr. Craig, was invited to a seat on the platform. Archdeacon submitted the statistical report of the synod. Archdeacon gave motion asking the synod to stamp of approval on the organ a laymen's society.

The charge of His Lordship Richardson, delivered this afternoon, was one and covers all of church activity during the duty of Canadians with regard was touched upon particularly with regard to the great increase in prohibition. He mentioned years ago he had said that he favorable to prohibition legislation in his attitude was a fact that in his opinion public in New Brunswick had become in a prohibitory law would distance toward aiding those by nature to resist the tempt strong drink.

It is interesting to note that in the total of $60,000,000 charged up to war account the department of militia and defence spent only $33,000,000. The naval service spent a little over $3,000,000 on war account, and the trade and commerce department spent another $3,000,000.

In the details of expenditures for militia the main item is $25,100,000 for pay allowances and subsistence. It may be noted that for boots and repairs to boots a total of $1,070,000 was expended, while the censors' service cost over $100,000.

It is interesting to note that in the total of $60,000,000 charged up to war account the department of militia and defence spent only $33,000,000. The naval service spent a little over $3,000,000 on war account, and the trade and commerce department spent another $3,000,000.

HOW TORIQUES MADE THE MONEY FLY

Ottawa, Feb. 1.—The public account for the last fiscal year, tabled in the House today, give some interesting figures as to the details of the growing expenditure of the present administration. It shows that the total revenue account altogether from the war and at a time when revenues were rapidly declining. During the twelve months, including eight months of war, the government spent $348,098,000, of which $60,700,000 is charged up to the war account.

The total domestic expenditure for the ordinary expenses of administration was $135,233,000, while on capital account for public works there was spent $61,447,000, for railway subsidies, $6,191,000, and for land transfer, twice and petroleum bounties, $124,000.

The government spent nearly $2,500,000 more on the ordinary expenses of administration than in the previous year. The total revenue account altogether from the war and at a time when revenues were rapidly declining. During the twelve months, including eight months of war, the government spent $348,098,000, of which $60,700,000 is charged up to the war account.

While revenue decreased by about $80,000,000, consolidated fund expenditure increased by over $8,000,000, and expenditure on public works by over $4,000,000, at a time when a policy of economy and retrenchment was being preached and practiced throughout the country.

It is interesting to note that in the total of $60,000,000 charged up to war account the department of militia and defence spent only $33,000,000. The naval service spent a little over $3,000,000 on war account, and the trade and commerce department spent another $3,000,000.

In the details of expenditures for militia the main item is $25,100,000 for pay allowances and subsistence. It may be noted that for boots and repairs to boots a total of $1,070,000 was expended, while the censors' service cost over $100,000.

It is interesting to note that in the total of $60,000,000 charged up to war account the department of militia and defence spent only $33,000,000. The naval service spent a little over $3,000,000 on war account, and the trade and commerce department spent another $3,000,000.

In the details of expenditures for militia the main item is $25,100,000 for pay allowances and subsistence. It may be noted that for boots and repairs to boots a total of $1,070,000 was expended, while the censors' service cost over $100,000.

It is interesting to note that in the total of $60,000,000 charged up to war account the department of militia and defence spent only $33,000,000. The naval service spent a little over $3,000,000 on war account, and the trade and commerce department spent another $3,000,000.

In the details of expenditures for militia the main item is $25,100,000 for pay allowances and subsistence. It may be noted that for boots and repairs to boots a total of $1,070,000 was expended, while the censors' service cost over $100,000.

It is interesting to note that in the total of $60,000,000 charged up to war account the department of militia and defence spent only $33,000,000. The naval service spent a little over $3,000,000 on war account, and the trade and commerce department spent another $3,000,000.

Advertisement for 'Lensed Compound' with text: 'Lensed Compound is a reliable old English'.

Advertisement for 'The Tonic of Health That Really Restores' with text: 'Must be more than a stimulant—must be a food as well. There is one medicine that is both a food and a tonic—it aids digestion, promotes assimilation, conserves the body's building materials, nerves, blood, brain and bone. That tonic is Ferrerone which contains exactly what a run-down system needs. Ferrerone supplies oxygen to purify the blood, to develop the brain, to open up the channels, to invigorate the muscles. No wonder it makes such vigorous men and women. You eat, sleep, think and feel better. Buy Ferrerone by the box of fifty chocolate-coated Ferrerone tablets, at all dealers.

Advertisement for 'Running Nose Colds Cured SNEEZING STOPPED INSTANTLY' with text: 'The worst of a cold is how suddenly it comes. No time to hurry to the drug store, crowd together, the lungs are affected with pneumonia or tuberculosis and it's too late. Keep Cattarhose on hand—it kills colds instantly. Some-thing magical about the way it cures catarrhs and bronchitis. Cattarhose is the best remedy because it cures in nature's way; it kills, soothes and restores permanently. Carry a Cattarhose with you in your pocket, use it occasionally and you'll never catch cold—that's worth remembering. Beware of dangerous substitutes meant to deceive you; get genuine Cattarhose, which is sold everywhere, large size containing two months treatment cost $1.00 small size 50c; sample size, 25c.