Disasters.

Brig Annie R Storer (of Boston), Adams, at New York, from Sagua, reports April 11, five miles E from Salt Cay Bank, saw a bark of about 500 tons, apparently British, lying on her broadside, with lower topsails set, and apparently bilged; appeared to have just gone ashore; another bark was close to her, assisting in taking off the crew.

The brig Bachelor, of St Andrews, at Boston 24th inst, reports on the 12th inst fell in with bark C V Minot, of Bath, Healey, from New York for Matanzas, which vessel was sabore on Salt Cay, having gone on the previous day, She was full of water, and in so bad a position that it was considered best by her officers to abandon her. All hands were accordingly taken off and brought to this port. She was laden with coal. The C V Minot was 443 tons register, built at Phipsburg, Me, in 1855, and was owned in Bath.
