It is said that an extremely pleasant and profitable "actor pow-wow" was held one evening last week, at the residence of one of our most public-spirited citizens. This is a new mode of amusement here, but will probably not become popular.

In some way the name of A. deW. Ross was omitted from our list of the candidates for the council in last issue. All the same his name appeared on a goodly number of the ballots—enough to give him a sure election. The Dr will bring to the council board considerable experience in municipal affairs and will prove a valuable member.

Mr. H. G. Harris, who is studying law in the office of Webster & Robertson, Kentville, went to Halifax last September and passed his Intermediate Law Examination before the Barristers' Society. He received no information as to the result of his examination until last week, when the secretary of the society sent word that he had successfully passed the same.

Mr. Arthur Wrayton, of Emerald Isle-Saltwater Co., has been arrested on the charge of causing the death of William Thurston, a semi-imbecile servant, through neglect in furnishing him with proper food and clothing. The man was found out doors frozen to death, in the early part of the winter, and after considerable comment had been made, an inquiry was held resulting as above.

The public will be pleased to be informed that the popular steamer City of Antigonish will again take her place upon the route between St. John, Digby and Antigonish on March 29th. She has undergone a thorough overhauling and is now considered to be one of the finest steamboats in eastern waters, being thoroughly equipped with all the modern appliances for the safety, comfort and convenience of passengers.

Mr. John Churchill, of Hantsport, says the Windsor Tribune, is at present visiting in Toronto, whether she has gone to be present at the marriage of her sister, Mrs. Nelly to Mr. Gilbert Fowler, of Windsor. The marriage was to have been solemnized on Thursday, March 24, but owing to the sudden death of Mr. Fowler's son on the very day he was setting out to meet his bride, the ceremony has been postponed for a few days.

The last issue of the Acadia Athenaeum contains an exceedingly well-written poem by Mr J. E. Bars, entitled "The Twentieth Century." Mr Bars is one of the most talented graduates of Acadia, and his native town is rightly proud of him.

We wish to thank our correspondents who have assisted us with items of news from their respective localities during the past, and ask that they and others will continue to help us. We want new items from every town and village in the county.

It is stated on good authority that the Dominion Coal Company will build and equip thoroughly a hospital for the object of providing the best care and treatment for their employees. The hospital will be open to all patients on payment of fees, but of course those connected with our collieries will have a special claim.—Sydney Advocate.

At the meeting of the Dairywomen's Association held in Truro last week, it was decided to hold the next annual meeting in Kentville. A resolution was passed changing the name of the Association to the "Dairywomen's and Farmers' Association" with the view of enlarging the scope and interest of the society. It was also decided if the funds would warrant, to hold meetings during the year in various parts of the province.

Our Vegetable Worm Syrup is warranted by us to be effective, safe, and very pleasant to the taste. Drug store.

One day last week Dalhousie students hired a German band to take up a position in the college reading-room and discourse the loudest music in their repertoire. They played for half an hour. The president and professors attempted to force open the door and dislodge the musicians, but the boys held the door shut. The president then obtained a warrant, and looking in over the transom took down the names of the students. Four were suspended on the spot and the band was sent out again to the street.

The week before last was the largest week's work ever accomplished in Springhill, notwithstanding that there were four idle days in the week. The largest number of 18,000 boxes of coal, independent of stone being hoisted, will show at a glance that things are not at a standstill in the underground city. Some time ago it was customary when a man finished his place he had to go idle 10 days, as it was not so easy to get a place made ready. It is not so today. We learn from good authority, that in the north slope alone, on the 1,900 foot level there are no less than four balances all ready to lower coal at five minutes notice. This is as it should be, and will show that Manager Melnis understood his duty to a nicety. The tail rope is giving better satisfaction, both to the men and to the management.—Ez.

The Town Council.

The election for town councillors on Monday resulted as follows:—

Table with 2 columns: Name and Votes. C. H. Borden (115), George Thomson (111), E. W. Sawyer (87), Geo. W. Horden (75), A. deW. Bars (73), C. H. Starr (65), J. B. Davison (65), S. P. Benjamin (57), R. E. Wickwire (54), F. J. Porter (44), J. L. Franklin (39), A. E. Caldwell (24), O. D. Harris (20).

The first six on the list are to form the first council, and with Mayor Bowles, should be able to transact our business in a satisfactory manner.

We understand the first meeting of the council is to be held on Saturday evening, at the firemen's rooms. No doubt the citizens will be anxious to be present and see our "city fathers" in office.

Wolfville, March 15th, 1893.

Berwick Notes.

Mrs Pelton is about moving away, and Mr J. Clark and family, lately returned from the States, will take her place.

Mr D. Porter is expected to occupy the McLeod place.

Mr J. H. Dimock has failed to make money out of life insurance, see his letter in last week's Register.

The Baptist congregation is in a flutter, over the pastor's resignation. The young clergyman shows himself plucky as well as "brilliant." This people have a record as being a little slow in regard to pastoral support. The present incumbent announced from his pulpit four months ago that unless there was more promptness in the matter of his salary he would seek a "greener field of labor."

A few weeks ago he tendered his resignation, to take effect at the end of August next. At a meeting on the 17th, inst., to consider the matter it was shown that for a year and nine months pastoral labor he was three months short in salary. It is reported that young members of his congregation, including one of the deacons, have been lately spending money freely at places of questionable amusement. A resolution to request the pastor to withdraw his resignation was lost. An adjourned meeting to further consider the matter is to take place on the 31st. The young man is a popular pastor and, with his rapidly developing gifts, gives promise, at no distant day, of fitness to adorn a pulpit in one of the best city churches. He has many ardent admirers and is highly respected. It is believed that matters will be amicably adjusted and that he will withdraw his resignation. Nevertheless a few years spent in study at a theological school would no doubt prove of incalculable value to him.

It is no secret that K. D. C. is the conqueror of indigestion, and the best dyspepsiacore on the market.

Gaspereau and Mountain Items.

J. L. Gertrige is much better; he will probably be able to attend the council at the April term.

Miss Nora Gertrige has gone to Boston on a visit. She will be home again in the course of a few weeks.

Newton Caldwell, postmaster, is very poorly, and but little hope is entertained of his recovery.

Dennis Redden, postmaster, has been confined to the house most of the winter with the grip, but will be all right when the weather comes warm.

Michael Caldwell is very sick with not much prospect of his recovery.

Owen Davidson and Fred Benjamin have a fine lot of logs at their mills, the best that have been there for years. They will commence sawing, in a few days.

John Wier met with quite a loss the other day. While logging on Forks river his oxen broke through the ice and one of them was drowned.

J. W. Brown has been logging all winter, and is going to try driving again on Black River. He is very determined to make that scheme work, but it takes something besides main strength and stupidity to drive logs on a crooked river. By the way, that "snow plough" is at Black River Lake, where it has done good work this winter clearing the track for the lumbermen.

The temperance division at Greenfield talk of building a hall in the near future. They have the timber out and will begin operations soon.

The Harris Car Works have been amalgamated with the business of Rhodes, Curry & Co., and the plant will be removed to Amherst from St. John. The new company has a capital stock of $200,000.

Populism is one form of indigestion. K. D. C. cures indigestion.
