Inadequate student academics, Campus Services and the problem of participation were the concerns discussed at a general meeting of the body this year.

The general meeting of Student Union, held after noon in room 105 Hall, was attended by just students.

SRC president, Jim opened the meeting. "I called this meeting to be getting to the point where many people are interested in what's going on at campus intention to hold these periodically."

Smith started the discussion the joint Senate/Student Evaluation Survey. He said the union position on Senate wants to continue arrangement but it is mandatory that all proposals the evaluation it's cost $4,000."

Commenting on the Smith said that the minister's Student Admittance met Monday. The committee is working on concerns, not broad last year. He stressed importance of the application for student loans students who are in appeal. He said the meeting is December 7. Smith three Maritime you are going to discuss student aid parity on but said he could do anything on the Monday.

On student housing crisis a lot of students turned back."

Smith complained conditions many living under. He said overcrowded, citing eleven girls paying month for a house
