

Ode to Bud

Starting each day I shall remind myself to reach out and touch you gently with my fingers; because I don't want to miss feeling you...
 Starting each day I shall dedicate myself again to the process of being a lover and then see what happens...
 You know I'm really convinced that if you were to define love the only word big enough to engulf it all would be your name BUD.
 Happy anniversary - I love you now and forever...
 your eternal slave,
 Janet
