

Sports in short

Royal Centennials conquer the north

Four games and four wins in the space of 36 hours — that's the story of Royal minor midget rep Centennial Caterings' visit to northern Ontario.

The Metro Toronto Hockey League team made the most of its whirlwind weekend exhibition tour, winning consecutive encounters against a Kirkland Lake bantam side, 6-2, Virginia Town, 7-3, Bracebridge, 9-0, and the midget all-star select of Kirkland Lake, 4-3.

"The boys were really flying," commented assistant coach John Brewer. "We had a definite edge in two areas — goaltending and positional hockey."

The Royal lads received top-notch netminding from regular first-stringer Vince Ventresca and back-up goalie Mark Hebert, borrowed for the duration of the tour from the club's bantam side.

The star of the weekend sojourn was Lloyd Roberts. "He played an outstanding game for us throughout," said Brewer.

This week, Centennials are scheduled to start play in the annual Clancy tournament.

Bucs reach for Golden Ball

Brampton Centennial Bucs, who had a tough time edging out the brave Port Credit Warriors in this year's annual high school basketball pow-wow, became the first Peel County senior team to reach the all-Ontario Golden Ball championship finals.

The process inflicting the first defeat in seven years on the powerful 1971 provincial champions. A marathon hook shot by consistent Bruce Thorne and a pair of foul throws by Bernie Niermann represented the margin of difference.

The Ontario finals conclude tomorrow at York University.

Malton rep tykes ousted

Malton Lawson reps lost a bid to earn a berth in the playoff final of the Metro Toronto Hockey League tyke A western series, losing a 6-3 decision to Eringate Tiverons at LaSalle Arena in Toronto Thursday night.

for solo goals, but it was too little to counter Tiverons' output.

The Eringate team scored three times in the first period, then matched the feat in the second frame to move into the divisional finals.

New breeze in Cawthra

Cawthra's minor soccer is changing its image in more ways than one in preparation for the forthcoming season.

previous years, the area operated teams only in the recreational Mississauga Soccer League (house league).

Not only has the area discarded its former name of Graydowntown in favour of Cawthra Minor Soccer Club, but plans are also under way to form teams to face the stiffer challenge of more competitive Association League (formerly Select League) warfare. In Cawthra spokesman Lou Hack said that six teams, ranging from squirt to bantam, will be entered in the Association League. The club has openings for coaches and managers. For further information, contact Hack at 278-9318.

Ladies league a two-team race

Pace-setters Dancing Dollies and Mod Squad both posted victories and turned the winter-spring season of the Mississauga Ladies Basketball League into strictly a two-team race.

tended by Neat Netters, but held off a rally for a 19-16 triumph. Gerry Peters and Ann Tapp shared scoring laurels with nine and seven points respectively.

Led by Norma Walters' seven-point effort, Dollies downed Fancy Fems 19-15 to boost their league leading point total to 17, three ahead of the Mod Squad. Heather Caton had six for Fems.

The third game of the week resulted in a default win for Trouble Shooters over Slick Chicks.

Ben Kern in the money

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — Port Credit professional golfer Ben Kern, the only Canadian to survive the cut and qualify for the finals fired a closing round of 92 to finish with a 72-hole total of Standings: Dancing Dollies, 17; Mod Squad, 14; Neat Netters, Trouble Shooters, 8; Fancy Fems, 7; Slick Chicks, 0.

Dixie lacrosse dates

Saturday, April 7 has been announced as the date of the Dixie Minor Lacrosse Association's registrations for players in the 6-18 year age group.

Cost has been raised to $12 per child or a family rate of $22. Each registered player will receive a copy of the official rules and regulations and literature on the Dixie lacrosse circuit.

Course set for sailing

Mississauga Library is setting course for the sailing set. Having shown movies at the Central Library and the Burnhamthorpe branch, it now has issued a list of books for the benefit of the wet set.

The list is titled: "For Sailors Only," and it includes literature on building and sailing your own boat, knot tying, family boating, seamanship, and true tales from sailors of the seven seas.

Wellwood on collision course

Mississauga driver Bill Wellwood, leading money winner of the standardbred winter circuit, is expected to miss at least four more weeks of racings as a result of a spectacular three-horse collision at Toronto's Greenwood Racetrack.

in the standardbred set, Wellwood guided winning entries in 159 races, earning more than $350,000.

Chosen dates

It's sign-up time for the newly-created Bloor Baseball Association Saturday, March 24 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Boys 7 to 18 years of age, residing in the area bounded by Dundas, Dixie, Eglinton and Hurontario, can register at Burnhamthorpe Community Centre.

For further information, contact president Leo Spik at 279-2882.

It's not how you win, but how you play the game... Dixie PicWic defender Bill Kavanagh likes to play it like a true-blue Canadian — hard but clean; he helped his side to a valuable 2-2 tie against Clarkson in a Mississauga Hockey League tyke blue division encounter last Saturday. The tie kept Dixie's playoff hopes smouldering. With 20 games played, Kavanagh and PicWic tyke mates with 17 points, one fewer than fourth-place Cawthra.

AAA HOCKEY

Malton duo in high playoff gear

Gary Beck and Rory Carroll combined for five goals and 11 points in a two-man barrage that carried Malton past Cawthra 8-3 in a Mississauga Hockey League bantam AAA playoff contest.

Beck blasted the hat trick and Carroll poked in a pair. They each set up three goals in the red light romp. Steve Hodnett, Tom Musgrave and Mike McLellan slammed the other scoring drives.

For the losers, Steve Barron, Steve Roe and Mitch Kvanis tallied.

Richard Williamson put up a big single goal for Clarkson but Bill Gregson retaliated with two sterling goalmouth efforts that ensured Erindale's 2-1 triumph. Nick Giannoccaro made the assisting plays on both of the winners' scores.

MINOR BANTAM

Jeremy Smith connected on a whistling drive for Erindale but David Wallace evened things with a perfect play of his own when Applewood earned a 1-1 draw.

MINOR ATOM

Brian Hall notched the lone Port Credit score but both Russ Smith and Dave Corbett triggered winners for Lorne Park in a 4-2 first game win.

Adamson powers Erindale atoms

Steve Adamson scored half his teams goals as Erindale blasted Clarkson 6-1 in Mississauga Hockey League atom blue play this week.

Adamson's trio were aided by singles from Pat Tarrant, Hugh McCrie, and Carry Delaine.

Clarkson's Ed Clarks spoiled Steve Grogham's bid for a shutout.
