

of part II of that part of the Report of the Department immediately succeeding the Report of the Superintendent General, you will find particulars in respect to the Indians on the Tuscarora Reserve, who are commonly known as the Six Nations Indians; regarding whom you ask for information.

There is also a small Band of Mississauga Indians, who occupy a portion of the same Reserve; about whom information is likewise contained in the same report. The Mississaugas comprise the Eagle Band of the Great Chippewa Nation. The Six Nations consist of Mohawks & Iroquois.

The Tuscaroras, to whom you specially refer in your letter, compose

2