"CANADIANS ALL" BROADCAST

D 59032

I have been asked to say a concluding word in the series of broadcasts, aptly entitled "Canadians All". In these broadcasts, ~~during the past twelve weeks~~, men and women of many races have told of their loyalty and love for Canada. They have also given to their fellow Canadians, in song and in speech, many cherished memories of their European motherlands.

But the stories they have told, and the songs they have sung, have not been the expression of regretful longing for scenes and days that have passed away. They have been offerings of devotion to Canada.

The participants in the several programmes, or their ancestors, came to ^{our country} Canada from Europe, but they are now all citizens of Canada. Some have come to us from countries that today lie prostrate under the heel of a ruthless invader; others from countries occupied by his armies; still others, from countries ^{threatened with the loss of their} ~~whose very existence is in peril~~. Some, also, have come from those countries whose present rulers, in order to satisfy an evil passion for domination, have, like Cain of old, risen to slay their brothers in other lands.
