

(Second witness Card 6)

The noise was stopped and immediately a sound of raised voices was heard. I was able to make out that the noise was a Pro-jump by the white clothing on lower front portion of the wind shield. I assumed that the Pro had a gun man person in custody and that this person was attempting to escape. I then heard a voice saying "Say you are sorry. Say you are sorry". I immediately heard another voice which appeared to be choked say "sorry". I then did not even realize what was actually taking place but I could still hear the voice and a sound as though a person was gasping for breath. I then looked up at the apartment of Maj Lumby and saw him leaning from the window. Maj Lumby then asked me, "Is it a Canadian", and I said "Yes, I think so". Maj Lumby disappeared from the window and my attention was again drawn to the Pro-jump, from which scuffling sounds still issued. I then walked over to the Pro-jump, facing first toward on the lights of my car. I then saw on reaching the back of the Pro-jump that a faint man lying in the back of the jump with for Pro/Cpt on top. The Cpt was striking at the form under him. I said "Come on now son, don't you think he had had enough". The Cpt paid no attention to me but continued to strike the form which I then recognized as a soldier. I again pleaded with him to stop and as he did not I took a hold of his arm which he was raising to strike the soldier. Just then Maj Lumby appeared and the Cpt then removed himself from the soldier and Maj Lumby and I lifted the soldier from the jump. The soldier on his feet but he was unable to stand. Maj Lumby said "God it's Eric", and although I know the
