

IX. At all Meetings of the Society, when the President, or in his absence, either of the Vice-Presidents, has assumed the Chair, a copy of "The Laws and Regulations" shall be laid on the table for the use of the Members, and nothing but the business before the Society shall be talked of, or discussed, till the Chair is vacated ;—whoever infringes this Regulation, (which shall uniformly be read immediately after the Roll is called) shall, after having been once reprimanded from the Chair, forfeit the sum of One shilling and three pence to the contingent fund.

Provision for due decorum at Meeting.

X. Upon the written application of three or more Members, specifying the object of the Meeting, the President, or in his absence, either of the Vice-Presidents, shall have power to call an extra meeting of the Society, (the Secretary giving to the Members sufficient previous notice): at any such meeting, no business shall be taken up and transacted but that for which the meeting was especially summoned.

The object of the Special Meetings, how to be called, and what may be then transacted.

XI. At the Quarterly Meeting, Candidates for admission, either as regular or honorary Members, shall be proposed, balloted for, and on a majority of favorable votes, immediately admitted; it being distinctly understood, however, that non-residents only, (on payment of Twenty shillings,) shall be eligible as honorary Members.

Admission of regular or honorary Members